CASE LAW

Public interest petition filed under Article 32 not entertainable as if is sought to enforce Directive Principles under Article 47.

The writ petition filed under Article 32 of the Constitution is that the policy of prohibition is not being implemented as enjoined by Article 47. The petition is not entertainable. Article 47 of the Constitution, which is part of Directive Principles of State Policy, enjoins that the State shall regard the raising of level of the standard of living of its people and the improvement of public health as among its primary duties and, in particular, the State shall endeavour to bring about prohibition of the consumption, except for medicinal purposes of intoxicating drinks and of drugs which are injurious to health. Article 47 as in Part IV of the Constitution which contains Directive Principles of State Policy. Article 37 enjoins that the provisions of this part shall not be enforceable by any Court, but the principles therein laid down are nevertheless fundamental in the governance of the country and it shall be the duty of the State to apply these principles in making laws. It has to be borne in mind that Article 32 of the Constitution gives the Supreme Court the power to enforce rights which are fundamental rights. Fundamental rights are justiciable, Directive Principles are not. Directive Principles are aimed at securing certain values or enforce certain attitudes in the law making and in the administration of law. Directive Principles cannot in the very nature of things be enforced in a Court of law. Whether a law should be made embodying the principles of Directive Principles depends on the legislative will of the legislation. Article 32 is not the machinery through which policy preferences or priorities are determined and Supreme Court is not the forum where the conflicting claims of policies or priorities should be debated. To make the State accept a particular policy, desirable and necessary as the policy might be is not the function of Article 32 of the Constitution. Article 32 is not the nest for all the bees in the bonnet of 'public spirited persons'. — B. Krishna Bhat v Union of India, (1990) 3 SCC 65. [Articles 32 and 47]

To make the State accept a particular policy — Not the function of Article 32.

The petition under Article 32 is that the policy of prohibition is not being implemented as enjoined by Article 47 of the Constitution. Article 47 of the Constitution, which is part of our Directive Principles of State Policy, enjoins that the State shall regard the raising of the level of nutrition and the standard of living of its people and the improvement of public health as among its primary duties and, in particular, the State shall endeavour to bring about prohibition of the consumption except for medicinal purposes of intoxicating drinks and of drugs which are injurious to health. Article 47 is in Part IV of the Constitution, which contains Directive Principles of the State Policy. Article 37 enjoins that the provisions of this part shall not be enforceable by any Court, but the principles therein laid down are nevertheless fundamental in the governance of the country and it shall be the duty of the State to apply these principles in making laws. It has to be borne in mind that Article 32 of the Constitution gives the Supreme Court the power to enforce rights which are fundamental rights. Fundamental rights are justiciable, directive principles are not. Directive principles are aimed at securing certain values or enforce certain attitudes in the law making and in the administration of law. Directive

R. 3 - Standing Circular No. 141, Para 3(c) - C.L. 2 Licence holder to purchase only from C.L. 1 Licence holder of his district, not permissible to purchase from C.L. 1 Licence Holder outside the district - Explained. - Bhagyalakshmi Wines Stores and Another v State of Karnataka and Others, 1989(3) Kar. L.J. 326.

R. 3(2) - As amended by Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) (Amendment) Rules, 1997 - Distributor licence - Amendment liberalising grant of - Provision restricting distributorship to company owned or controlled by State Government, validity of which has been upheld by Apex Court, sought to be diluted and water down by making amendment permitting appointment of more than one distributor for distillery, brewery or winery either for whole or part of State - Amendment made to nullify effect of judgment of Apex Court is liable to be quashed.

R.P. Saiti, C.J. and A.M. Farooq, J., Held: In the instant case while upholding the validity of 1989 rules, the Supreme Court rejected all the pleas of the manufacturers and distilleries of the IMFL which have been now made a basis for repealing of the 1989 rules. Upholding the validity of the impugned rules would amount to setting aside of the Apex Court judgment in Khaday Distilleries case. What the distilleries and manufacturers of liquor could not achieve in a Court of law, they have clandestinely succeeded to obtain by virtue of the impugned rules. The impugned rules if permitted to remain on the statute book would not only be contrary to the directions of the Supreme Court but would be a negation of the rule of law. The impugned rules have not been referred to any reasonable basis or justification. The impugned rules are not only unconstitutional, illegal, malafide, initiated at the instance of the manufacturers and distilleries of IMFL is conspiracy with some bureaucrats but also against the general public interest resulting in huge losses not only to the State Exchequer but to MSIL, admittedly a public undertaking and Government Company. - K.V. Anurnath and Another v State of Karnataka and Others, 1998(5) Kar. L.J. 62D (DB).

Rule 3(2) - Constitution of India, Articles 226 and 227 - Allegation of selling spurious and adulterated liquors made against licensee - Suspension of licence in Form CL-2 pending enquiry into - Writ petition challenging order of suspension of licence on ground that opinion formed by Deputy Commissioner that licensee was in possession of spurious and adulterated liquor was without basis as the report of chemical analyst does not disclose anything harmful to consumers in liquor alleged to be spurious and adulterated, seized from licensee - However, in view of fact that opinion formed by authority for suspending licence is based on prima facie material and it is for that authority to take note of Chemical Analyst's report at the time of enquiry, matter is not one to be interfered with in exercise of judicial review - Direction, however, lies to authority to complete enquiry within two months.

B.S. Patil, J., Held: This is not a case of cancellation of licence, but suspension of the licence pending enquiry. The opinion formed by Deputy Commissioner, as is evident from the impugned order, is based on prima facie material placed before him. What is the effect of the report of Chemical Analyst, is a matter to be taken note of at the time of enquiry. Therefore, the writ petition is dismissed. . . . However, in view of petitioner apprehending that the disposal of the case may get delayed by the Deputy Commissioner, I deem it appropriate to direct the Deputy Commissioner to conduct necessary enquiry and complete the same within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order. - Smt. Lalithamma v State of Karnataka and Others, 2010(1) Kar. L.J. 669.

Rule 3(2) - Constitution of India, Articles 226 and 227 - Retail shop licence - Breach of terms and conditions of - Cancellation of licence for - Concurrent finding of fact by three authorities, viz., Deputy Commissioner (Excise), Commissioner of Excise and Tribunal, that illicit liquors were manufactured and smuggled liquors were sold by servants of licensee in licensed premises - Whether to compound offence or to cancel licence is matter of discretion of authority - Where authority has chosen to cancel licence on basis of such finding, decision of authority cannot be interfered with in exercise of writ jurisdiction.

It reveals from the specific finding given by the Commissioner of Excise that it is a fact that the duplicate liquor and the non-duty paid liquor were found in the storeroom belonging to the CL-2 licensed premises. Therefore, to make a distinction that the same was few metres away from the licensed premises does not hold much water. Whether to compound the offence or cancel the licence is the subjective satisfaction of the Deputy Commissioner who is the licensing authority has passed a well-considered order dismissing the appeal filed by the petitioner. The Karnataka Appellate Tribunal also dismissed the appeal holding that as per Section 29, it is very much evident that if any of the servants who is acting on behalf of the licensee either with his express or implied permission, then also the licence is liable to be cancelled or suspended. Therefore, it cannot be held that the servants are responsible for the crime and not the licensee. Section 29(b) of the Karnataka Excise Act gives sufficient powers to the licensing authority to cancel the licence for breach of licence condition. Once the Competent Authorities have recorded a concurrent finding of fact, this Court cannot exercise its extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution of India. At one stage, the petitioner herself has admitted in unequivocal terms in writing that her servant has committed a mistake and she is ready to pay the penalty and the value of the commodity seized. Thereafter, she changed her version in the objections filed to the show-cause notice. . . . Having regard to the facts and circumstances of the case there is no error of law or material irregularity in the impugned orders. - Smt. Jayamma v The Commissioner of Excise in Karnataka, Bangalore and Others, 2003(3) Kar. L.J. 272.

Rule 3(9) - Bar licence - Cancellation for unauthorised transfer of - Transfer involves parting with ownership of business of running bar for which licence was granted, and transfer becomes unauthorised attracting penalty of cancellation of licence, only if transfer has been effected without previous permission of designated authority and without payment of requisite transfer fee - Act does not contemplate that licensee must himself run bar by being present on premises all time - He is not prohibited from managing business through servant or agent - Power of attorney simpliciter granted to agent to manage business does not amount to transfer of business to agent - Unless there is finding that licensee has divested himself of ownership of business, licence cannot be cancelled. - Cancellation of licence in absence of such finding, held, amounts to wrongfully preventing licensee from carrying on her business.

Rule 17 of the Karnataka Excise Licences (General Conditions) Rules, 1967 provides that the right of retail vend. of liquor shall not be transferred by the licensee except with the previous permission of the Deputy Commissioner. Rule 17-A provides that in the event of death of the licensee during the currency of the licence, the Deputy Commissioner may, on an application by the legal heirs of the deceased with the previous sanction of the Excise Commissioner, transfer the licence in their favour. Rule 17-B provides for transfer of licence. It provides that in regard to licences issued for sale of Psychotropic Substances Act, 1965 and Medicinal and Toilet Preparation (Excise Duties) Act, 1958, or an offence under Section 481, 482, 483, 484, 485, 486, 487 or 489 of the Indian Penal Code, 1860.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule, a company, firm or other body corporate shall be deemed to have incurred the disqualification if the person in charge of and responsible for the conduct of the business of such company, firm or other body corporate has incurred the disqualification.

[Provided that the authority which grants or renews the licence may in the interest of revenue and for any other reason to be recorded in writing relax the provisions of clause (1) and grant or renew the licence.]

(2) A person shall not be disqualified under clause (1) of sub-rule (1) if he produces a certificate from a competent Revenue or Excise Officer to the effect that the arrears have been paid.]

[B. Grant of Licence. — On receipt of the application under Rule 4, and subject to the provisions specified in Rule 4-A] the Deputy Commissioner or the Excise Commissioner, as the case may be, may require such other particulars as he may deem necessary and may make inquiries for verification of the particulars furnished by the applicant and also such other inquiries as he deems fit. If the Deputy Commissioner or the Excise Commissioner, as the case may be is satisfied that there is no objection to grant the licence applied for, he may grant the licence on payment of the fee prescribed under Rule 8 for such licence:

Provided that no such licence shall be granted by the Deputy Commissioner except with the previous sanction of the Excise Commissioner.]

[Provided further that while considering the applications for grant of CL-7 licence, the Deputy Commissioner shall ensure that the applicant is in a position to provide good accommodation and facilities to the customers and the standard of refreshments, food and service are provided for. If the Deputy Commissioner is of the opinion that the hotel or the boarding house does not conform to the minimum standard required for running a hotel or boarding house or not suitable to grant licence, he may reject such application after giving reasons therefor.]

(2) Every such application shall be made at least one month before the expiry of the licence already granted:

Provided that the Excise Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be, may accept and consider any such application made after the aforesaid period of one month, if he is satisfied that the applicant had sufficient cause for not making the application within that period.

(3) The licences granted prior to the first of July, 1999 may be renewed at the discretion of the Excise Commissioner or the Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be on payment of 50% (fifty per cent) of the fee prescribed under Rule 8 in respect of the entire period for which licence was not granted, for the purpose of maintaining continuity of the licences:

Provided that while renewing the licence under this sub-rule the Deputy Commissioner or the Excise Commissioner, as the case may be shall ensure that the total number of licences granted or renewed do not exceed the quota fixed in Rule 12, for grant of each kind of licence for an area.]

CASE LAW

Rule 5-A — As amended by Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) (Second Amendment) Rules, 2000 — Licence — Grant or renewal of — It has to be granted or renewed for whole excise year, and not for fraction of excise year — Renewal of licence for only three months after collecting licence fee for whole excise year, held, bad in law.

It is not in dispute that the authorities have no power to renew the licence for a break up period. When the Rule provides that the licence has to be renewed from one excise year to another excise year the respondents have granted licence only for a period of three months after collecting the licence fee for the whole year. The respondents- authorities have no right to collect the licence fee for a break up period under the Act. When they have no right to collect the licence fee for a break up period, they have no right to grant licence for a break up period. In other words, there is no justification on the part of the respondents to collect the licence fee for the whole year and grant the licence for a period of three months only. — S.N. Chinnappa v State of Karnataka and Others, 2001(5) Kar. L.J. 234.

Rule 5-A — Petitioners prayed for writ of mandamus directing respondents to renew lapsed licences by accepting 50% of prescribed licence fee for lapsed period — Sub-rule (3) of Rule 5-A makes it clear that if licences granted prior to 1-7-1999 may be renewed on payment of 50% of fee prescribed under Rule 8 of Rules in respect of lapsed period — Petitioners have obtained licences after 1-7-1999, benefit or concession provided under Rule 5-A(3) not applicable to them — Demand notice issued by authorities calling upon petitioners to deposit entire arrears of licence fee cannot be said to be illegal or bad in law — Petition dismissed.

Mohan Shankaragoudar, J., Held: The bare perusal of Rule 5-A of the Rules would make it clear that the application for renewal of licence shall be made

1. Rule 5-A inserted by Notification No. FD 12 FES 2000, dated 24-6-2000, w.o.f. 24-6-2000.
2. Inserted by Notification No. FD 06 FES 2006(7), dated 19-6-2006, w.o.f. 1-7-2006

Rules 4 and 5 — Retail shop — Grant of licence in Form CL-2 for running of — Condition regarding location — Premises where applicant intends to conduct business under licence must be specified in application, and if premises is found suitable, licence can be granted — Consent of owner of premises, when applicant himself is not owner, is not requirement for grant of licence — Once consent of landlord is obtained for issue of licence, his further consent is not necessary for renewal of licence every year — Licence granted cannot be revoked merely because landlord has chosen to withdraw his consent.

V.K. Singhal, J., Held: The licence has to be granted by the Excise Authorities on the basis of fulfilling the requirements of the Act and the Rules made thereunder. Though the requirement of any consent of the landlord is not specifically there, but for administrative convenience it has been obtained as in the present case. Once the consent is obtained for, hence for the subsequent period it is not necessary that such consent has to be obtained for renewal of licence every year. Grant of licence cannot be regulated by the whim of the owner of the premises. There is no provision under the Act or the Rules for refusal or cancellation of the grant of licence or renewal in a situation when subsequently the landlord changes his mind. The whim of the landlord would not determine the fate of the tenant. The question whether there is a valid lease or tenancy in existence cannot be examined in the proceedings under Article 226 of the Constitution when a suit is also pending. The right of the tenant does not come to an end automatically with the termination of lease/tenancy. In these circumstances, there is no case made out for interference under the extraordinary jurisdiction under Article 226 of the Constitution. — B.C. Narasimha Murthy v The Commissioner of Excise, Bangalore and Others, 1998(5) Kar. L.J. 491A.

R. 4(2)(iv) — Karnataka Excise (Possession, Transport, Import and Export of Intoxicants) Rules, 1967, Rule 4 — Licence in Form CL-1 to wholesalers — Condition No. 2 of licence — Wholesaler to sell liquors only within area specified in licence — Retailer holding CL-2 licence has necessarily to purchase liquor from only such wholesaler who has licence to sell within area — Retailers in Bangalore Rural District purchasing liquor from wholesalers in Bangalore Urban District whose CL-1 licence permits him to sell liquor in Bangalore Rural District as well — Such retailers are entitled to be given transport permits for transporting purchased liquor to their licensed premises.

G.C. Bharuka, J., Held: — Since as per Condition No. 2 of his licence in CL-1, a wholesaler can sell liquor only within the area specified in his licence, it is necessarily follows that a retailer of the said district only can purchase liquor from such in wholesaler. In the present cases, it has been brought on record that some of the wholesaler of Bangalore Urban District have been granted licence to effect sale in Bangalore Rural District as well. In that view of the matter as per the law laid down, the present petitioners are entitled to make purchases from the said wholesale dealers. Since purchases in question of the petitioners will be in accordance with law, respondents are statutorily bound to grant them permits for transportation of the purchased stock of liquor to their licensed premises in terms of Rule 4 of the Karnataka Excise (Possession, Transport, Import and Export of Intoxicants) Rules 1967 provided all the other terms for issuance of such permits as contemplated under law or complied with. — M. Venkataraman v State of Karnataka and Others, 1996(5) Kar. L.J. 579.

Rule 4(3) — Karnataka Excise Act, 1965, Section 71 — Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) Rules, 1968 — As amended in 1992 with effect from 1-7-1992 — Licence — Application for grant or regrant of — Rule requiring application to be accompanied by up-to-date Sales Tax Clearance Certificate issued by Department of Commercial Taxes as condition for considering application — Rule, held, is beyond rule making power of State Government and is unenforceable, as levy and collection of sales tax is not one of purposes to be achieved under Excise Act.

R.V. Rameshram, J., Held: — Firstly, levy and collection of sales tax is not one of the purposes sought to be achieved under the Excise Act. Secondly, the Karnataka Sales Tax Act does not provide that a licence holder under the Excise Act should not be a defaulter of sales tax for the purpose of grant of licence under the Excise Act. Thirdly, neither the Sales Tax Act nor the Excise Act define what is a Sales Tax Clearance Certificate. . . . It is declared that Rule 4(3) of the Rules is beyond the rule making power of the State Government and it is unenforceable. Rule 4(3) of the said Rules is hereby struck down. Consequently, the Authorities enforcing excise laws will not be entitled to insist on production of Sales Tax Clearance Certificate as a condition for accepting an application or for granting licence under the Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquor) Rules, 1968. — Bhanu Liquor Shop, Banuvalli, Harihar Taluk v State of Karnataka and Others, 2000(5) Kar. L.J. 512.

4-A. Registration of Application. — (1) The Excise Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner, as the case may be, shall register every application immediately on its receipt in the register prescribed. If the application does not contain the prescribed particulars or otherwise is not in order, the Excise Commissioner or Deputy Commissioner shall return such application to the applicant for re-submission under a written endorsement. If the applicant fails to re-submit such application within fifteen days from its receipt from the Deputy Commissioner such application shall be deemed to have been rejected.

(2) Every application received under sub-rule (1), shall be entered in the register prescribed and shall be allotted a registration number in the serial order specifying the time and date of its receipt.

(3) The Deputy Commissioner shall consider and dispose applications received under sub-rule (1), having regard to their date of receipt.]

4-B. Disqualification. — (1) A person shall be disqualified from submitting an application for obtaining or renewal of licence under these rules if he —

- (i) has not paid the arrears of any excise dues in respect of liquor sold by him;
- (ii) has not produced a valid income-tax clearance certificate or has not produced any document in proof of filing the latest income-tax return before the Income-tax Department in respect of his income;

He shall also enter in the appropriate columns the dip and gravity of worts collected, the number and description of the vessel or vessels in which they have been collected and the date and hour of the entry. Such entry shall be made within one hour after the collection has been completed and if the worts are not collected before 6 p.m., the entry shall be made before 8 a.m. next morning. If fermentation has started before the requisite entry is made, the brewer shall enter the true original gravity of worts. Each entry shall be initialled by the brewer or his agent.

16. Brewing.—Beer shall be brewed from good materials and its quality shall be such as to satisfy the Commissioner. Wort shall not be brewed of a higher gravity than 1073°. Nothing shall be added to Beer after it has been racked and removed to a Beer store except fining or other materials approved by the Commissioner. Beer, in beer stores must not be diluted and any beer found in stores must not be diluted and any beer found adulterated will be liable to forfeiture. The forfeiture of beer, will not relieve the brewer from the penalty of fine or cancellation of licence prescribed under Rule 23.

17. Surveys.—Officers surveying of breweries shall make complete survey of the whole of the brewery room every day on which they will visit the brewery showing in the proper columns in the survey book, the form of which will be prescribed by the Commissioner, the condition of each vessel and the dip and gravity of each vessel containing fermenting worts, unless such wort shall be fining, when, except in case of suspicion of fraudulent addition or removal of worts, the surface need not be broken. A copy of each survey will be made in a similar book and will be left at the brewery for the information of the brewer.

18. Stock Book.—The licensee shall keep a stock account in such form as may be required by the Commissioner in which he shall duly enter the net quantity of beer brewed, the quantity, if any, returned and brought into stock after verification by the authorised Officers and the total quantity issued. Each issue within the State shall be accompanied by a permit in Form No. 2

Commissioner. The stock book shall be checked atleast once in a week by the Inspecting Officer.

19. Corrections, etc., in the accounts.—No entry in any of the books kept by the brewer under these rules shall be erased or overwritten. If there may be any need of correction of any entry, a circle in red ink or pencil should be drawn around the incorrect entry and correct entry be made with the initials of the person incharge. The Inspecting Officer shall initial the corrections during his next inspection. Grave errors shall be reported to the Deputy Commissioner by the Inspecting Officer and his directions shall be acted upon.

20. Samples.—Samples of wort in any stage of fermentation or of stored beer may be taken for analysis without payment by the Inspecting Officer or any Authorised Officer. The Inspecting Officer shall at least once in a quarter, forward the samples of wort in fermentation to the laboratory for analysis. On any other occasion. When the samples of wort or beer are taken, the Inspecting Officer shall submit a special report to the Deputy Commissioner explaining the reasons and the nature of analysis required. Samples of brewing material shall be taken only if required, by the Commissioner. When, however, there is large discrepancy between the quantity of malt or unmalted corn entered in the brewing book and that of the grains in the mashtun, a sample of the grains should be taken and at once sent for analysis with a copy of entry in the brewing book, the dip of the grains in the mashtun, the quantity represented by the dip and the percentage or increase or decrease. On this report and after examination of the samples, the Commissioner will pass such orders as he thinks fit.

21. Stock taking.—The stock of the beer in every brewery shall be taken atleast twice in each year by the Inspecting Officer or such other Officer authorised. Stock shall only be taken at other times by the Inspecting Officer or any other Officer so authorised, if there is any suspicion of fraudulent practices. In the former case immediate report shall be submitted to the Deputy Commissioner and in the latter, to the Commissioner, along with the explanation of the brewer for any excess or deficiency exceeding one per cent and any orders passed thereon shall be executed.

22. The charging and collection of duty.—The duty on all the beer from the brewery for the purpose of consumption shall be paid at such rate as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time, into the Government Treasury, and the relative challan produced before the issue of the necessary permits. The Inspecting Officer shall submit a statement showing the quantity of beer issued and the amount of duty collected thereon every month to the Deputy Commissioner and a copy to the Commissioner.

23. Refund when and how made.—Where it is found that the brewer has paid any excess amount, he may claim its refund and if on verification his claim is found to be correct, the amount shall be refunded or adjusted towards the duty on any subsequent issues, the relevant entries being made under the initials of the Inspecting Officer in the permits towards which the

25. Breach of Rules.—In case of any breach of these rules or conditions of licence either by the licensee or by his employees, the Commissioner may suspend or cancel the licence or both and the licensee shall not be entitled to any compensation. The suspension or cancellation shall not prevent the prosecution of any person for any offence which he may commit against the provisions of the Karnataka Excise Act, 1965 or other law for the time being in force. If, on prosecution, the licensee or his employee is convicted by the Court. It shall be lawful for the Commissioner to declare his licence forfeited.

26. The licensee to be bound by all additional Rules.—The brewer (licensee) shall be bound by all the additional rules for the control of breweries which may hereafter be prescribed under the existing law or under any law which may hereafter be enacted and by all special orders issued by the Commissioner with regard to individual brewery and shall cause all persons employed by him in his breweries to obey all such rules.

27. Appeal.—(1) Except as otherwise provided, an appeal shall lie,—

- (a) to the Deputy Commissioner from any order or proceedings taken under these rules by the Inspecting Officer or any other Officer authorised by him;
- (b) to the Commissioner from any order passed or proceedings taken or any appellate order passed by the Deputy Commissioner.

(2) The appeal under clause (a) of sub-rule (1) shall be preferred within sixty days and the appeal under clause (b) of sub-rule (1) shall be preferred within ninety days of the communication of the order appealed against.

[27-A. Grant of licence for Microbrewery.—Any person who desirous of obtaining a licence for a Microbrewery shall apply to the Excise Commissioner in Form 4 through the Deputy Commissioner. The Application shall be accompanied by a treasury challan for having credited the fee specified in sub-rule (2) and full description of the premises, utensils and installed capacity of the Plant per day. The detailed in the application shall be checked either by the Deputy Commissioner or some other Officer duly authorised by him in this behalf, who shall certify to the fact, if he finds it correct, and forward it to the Commissioner. The Commissioner may grant Microbrewery licence subject to conditions and restrictions specified in the Karnataka Excise Licences (General Conditions) Rules, 1967.]

28. Repeal and Savings.—All rules corresponding to the foregoing rules framed under any enactment repealed by Section 72 of the Act are hereby repealed:

Provided that the repeal shall not effect,—

- (a) the previous operation of the rules so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder; or

- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability accrued or incurred under any rule so repealed, or
- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any rule so repealed, or
- (d) any investigation or legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty, forfeiture or punishment as aforesaid, and any such investigation, legal proceeding or remedy may be instituted, continued or enforced and any such penalty, forfeiture or punishment may be imposed as if such rules had not been repealed:

Provided further that subject to the preceding proviso anything done or any action taken (including any appointment or delegation made, notification order, instructions or direction issued, form, certificate obtained, permit or licence granted or registration effected under any such rules), shall be deemed to have been done or taken under the corresponding provisions of these rules and shall continue to be in force accordingly, unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under the Act or these rules, as the case may be.

R. 5 — Licence — Grant of.

Jaganmutha Shetty, J.—A rival trader has no right to be heard by considering an application for licence. The grant of licence under the E-Rules is not controlled by the population of the area — Sardar Ratan Sh Excise Commissioner. 1973(2) Kar. L.J. Jr. 75 Sh.N. 207.

Rule 5 — Original licence was issued — Writ seeking renewal of licence — Due enquiry followed — Application for renewal under Rule for the year 2014-2015 filed — Deputy Commissioner called upon petitioners to furnish copies of records of the building as well as conversion order for diversion of the land over which the shop premises constructed — Deputy Commissioner did not exercise of jurisdiction vested in him — Held, petitions are allowed in part and the Deputy Commissioner is directed to consider petitioners' application for renewal of CL-2 licence

Ram Mohan Reddy, J. Huhl: Petitioners when issued with CL-2 licence due enquiry and following Rule 5 of the Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian Foreign Liquors) Rules, 1968, filed an application for transfer of licence Kundapur to Udipi in the year 2009, whence Deputy Commissioner held regard to Rule 23 of the Karnataka Excise Licences (General Conditions) Rules, 1967 and Rule 5 over restriction of location of the shop permitted shifting to Udupi. Thereafterwards, on an application under Rule 5-A Rules, licence was renewed for the years 2010-2011, 2011-2012, 2012-2013, 2013-2014. The fact that the Deputy Commissioner did not exercise jurisdiction vested in him under Rule 5-A to dispose of the petition application before 30-6-2014 is a clear indicator of denial of the petition right of renewal. Although learned HCGP submits that there is no dereliction of jurisdiction, yet again, I am afraid the very fact that he did not exercise jurisdiction vested in him before 30-6-2014 tantamount to non-exercise of jurisdiction vested in him, calling for interference. Saritha S. Hegde and Another v The Deputy Commissioner, Udupi District and Another, 2014(4) Kar. L.J. 365.

convenience, morality, tranquility, decency or safety of the public or for any other reason, reject the application for licence to a liquor shop or premises after recording the reasons therefor.]

(3) For the purpose of this rule while measuring the distance specified in this rule, the distance shall be measured along the nearest path by which the pedestrian ordinarily reaches, adopting the mid-point of the entrance of the shop and the mid-point of the nearest ~~entrance of the institution, hospital or office~~ ^{entrance of the institution, hospital or office} if there is a compound wall and if there is no compound wall, the mid-point of the nearest entrance of the institution or the office.

(4) The Deputy Commissioner may, by order after giving the licence an opportunity of being heard, direct such licence to shift the location of any shop,—

(a) With a view to secure the convenience, morality, tranquility, decency or safety of the public [or compliance] of the provisions of these rules; or

(b) where after the issue of a licence, any religious institution or educational institution is established [or any office of the State Government or Central Government or Local Authorities or a Hospital is opened] within the limits specified in this rule; to any other suitable place, within such period, not exceeding three months as he may specify.]

³(5) The Excise Commissioner may at his discretion and for reasons to be recorded in writing exempt from the application of these rules in the case of wholesale licences (CL-1) and distributor licences referred to in clauses (1) and ⁴[(11)] of Rule 3 of the Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquor) Rules, 1968.]

CASE LAW

R. 5 — Amendment of vide Notification No. FD 20 PES 92, dated 21st June, 1993 — Constitutional validity of amended Rule 5 challenged — Rule placing restrictions regarding location of shops — Whether unreasonable and arbitrary, thereby offending Article 14 of the Constitution?

Shivraj Patil, J. Held.—Rule 5 of the Rules 1967 prior to its amendment did place restrictions regarding location of shops stating that no such site shall be selected to locate a shop within a distance of 100 metres from any religious or educational institution or residential locality inhabited predominantly by Scheduled Castes and Scheduled Tribes. The amended Rule 5 includes hospitals, any office of the State Government or of the Central Government or local authorities and State and National Highways. Distance of 100 metres remains the same except in regard to highways. As far as State Highway and National Highway are concerned, distance prescribed for location of a shop is 220 metres from the middle of the State Highway or National Highway. It appears and it stands to reason as well, that the impugned rule is intended to secure the convenience, morality, tranquility, decency or safety of the public. . . . In short, the impugned rule serves the public interest and as such it is neither unreasonable nor arbitrary. — B.N. Raghuram and Others v State of Karnataka and Others, 1993(3) Kar. L.J. 238A.

R. 5 — Amendment of — Whether ultra vires Section 71 of the Act.

Shivraj Patil, J. Held.—The contention that the impugned Rule 5 being the subordinate legislation is not a law made by the legislature of the State and that too when it is not placed on the floor of the legislature, restrictions imposed by the impugned rule are bad in law, does not merit acceptance. Having regard to the language of Section 71(3) of the Act, a valid rule made under the Act has to be taken as a law made by the State Legislature. The impugned Rule 5 is aimed at and intended to achieve some social purpose and the rule is made in the interest of safety, morality and convenience of the public and that the impugned rule having been made by virtue of the powers conferred by Section 71 of the Act definitely serves the purpose of the Act. The impugned Rule 5 is not ultra vires of the Act. — B.N. Raghuram and Others v State of Karnataka and Others, 1993(3) Kar. L.J. 235B.

Rule 5 — Karnataka Excise Act, 1965, Section 21 — Location of business of vending Indian Liquor — Notice to licences to shift location of their business — Law and order question — Challenged — Contended that no opportunity given and decision taken unilaterally to issue notice to shift place of business — Held — Act always prevail over rules — Rule 5 is only in context of shifting whereas Section 21 is in context of maintaining law and order — Main intention is to close down shops immediately — Notice is more an enabling notice rather than one for purpose of shifting — Three days time to make alternative arrangement is more than sufficient when situation is examined under Section 21 of the Act — Action of authorities have to be examined on touchstone of rules and statutory provisions rather than to examine rights of the licensee — No person has a right to trade in liquor as it is a privilege of the State — Action does not warrant interference in exercise of power of judicial review of administrative action.

D.V. Shylendra Kumar, J. Held: Petitioners have approached Court on the premises that the Deputy Commissioner of the District has surprised them by issuing the notice calling upon the petitioners to shift the location of their business to some other place within three days from the date of receipt of the notice as otherwise the authorities will be constrained to close the shops forcibly from carrying on business at the existing location. . . . They urge that the notice in per se bad in law; that it is clearly violative of sub-rule (4) of Rule 5 of the Karnataka Excise Licences (General Conditions) Rules, 1967 and they have been asked to shift their business place even without giving any opportunity; that a decision has been taken unilaterally even before the petitioners can have their say in the matter; that the rule contemplates opportunity of hearing being given to persons like the petitioners before the place of business is asked or permitted to be shifted and therefore the present action is clearly violative of the rule.

While it is true that sub-rule (4) of Rule 5 of the Rules contemplates opportunity of hearing to a person who has been asked to shift from the existing location to a new place, there cannot be any generalisation of this rule so as to either dilute the provisions of Section 21 of the Act or in any way interpret the rule working at cross purposes with the intention and object of Section 21 of the Act. While a section always prevails over a rule, in fact, Rule 5 is only in the context of shifting a premises where as Section 21 of the Act is mainly in the context of maintaining law and order, peace and it has been made in the larger public interest. . . . The notice is more an enabling notice rather than one for the purpose of shifting the premises. In fact, the main intention of the notice is to close down the shops immediately and the incidental purpose and option given is to shift to some other place and then to continue the business there. In fact, giving three days time to make alternative arrangements is more than sufficient opportunity when the situation is examined from the context of the provisions of Section 21 of the Act. . . . Insofar as the contention that the rights are violated is concerned, in the first instance, no person has a right to trade in liquor, it is a privilege of the State, parted by the State for a price. While it is true that the action of the authorities can be examined on the touchstone of the rules and statutory remedies, it is done more to ensure that the authorities exercising power under the Act and the Rules, act in a fair and statute conforming manner rather than to examine the rights of a licensee.

The action taken under notice is more than justified, bona fide action and not one warranting interference in the exercise of power of judicial review of administrative action. . . . If permitting the shops to remain open in the area can create law and order situation, the authorities can definitely close down the shops immediately. The authorities are definitely at liberty to keep the shops closed in the exercise of power under Section 21 of the Act till the decision is taken. — Rajendra Jyotiba Desai and Another v State of Karnataka and Others, 2009(1) Kar. L.J. 40.

Rule 5 — Petitioner had questioned before Appellate Tribunal order passed by Excise Commission withdrawing CL-7 licence that had been issued in his favour — Order passed by Tribunal declining to grant stay of withdrawal of licence pending considering of appeal challenged herein — This Court observed that Tribunal found that grant of licence obviously clashes with interest of a protected institution under Rule 5 of the Rules; that location of temple being well within 100 metres from location of hotel — Tribunal satisfied that it was not a proper case for grant of interim stay and in its exercise of discretion declined to grant interim order prayed for — No scope for interference in absence of any special or compelling reasons forthcoming — Writ petition dismissed.

D.V. Shylendra Kumar, J., Held: The Court is of the view that even without referring to this decision of the Supreme Court, the Tribunal has applied all the principles laid down therein and has examined the relevant aspects for grant of interim order of stay and being of the opinion that there was no justification to grant an interim order as prayed for, as such an order is perfectly justified. No scope for interference in the absence of any special or compelling reasons forthcoming, as indicated from the record or as placed before the Court by the learned Counsel for the petitioner for waiving the general rule of maintaining a distance of 100 mtrs. and also in the absence of any compelling reasons to grant a CL-7 licence as recorded by the Commissioner within a distance of 100 mtrs., the order passed by the Tribunal is unexceptionable, both on facts and in law. — Hotel Basant Residency, Bangalore v The Excise Commissioner in Karnataka, Bangalore Division, Bangalore and Others, 2008(2) Kar. L.J. 89.

Rule 5 — Public Interest litigation — Availability of alternative remedy under Act, and maintainability of — Grant of licence to run liquor shop within distance of 100 metres from educational institution, in breach of statutory condition — Where Appellate Authority to which appeal lies under Act, has no jurisdiction to decide question of public interest, remedy provided in Act is therefore no remedy when public interest is involved — Availability of such remedy is no bar to writ petition in public interest.

S.R. Eshwarrath and Subhash-B. Adl. J., Held: The appeal lies under the circumstances mentioned in Section 61, but the Appellate Authority cannot decide the public interest. — Prof. G. Shamesh and Others v State of Karnataka And Others, 2009(1) Kar. L.J. 287B (DB).

R. 5 — Whether the amended Rule 5 covers CL-9 licences also?

Shivanji Patil, J., Held:—Merely because the liquor is sold in a refreshment room or in the premises covered by CL-9 licence, it cannot be said that amended Rule 5 is not applicable to CL-9 licences, in view of the express statement made in Rule 2 that these rules are applicable to all licences issued under the Act and that every such licence shall be deemed to include the conditions prescribed by these rules as general conditions. In addition to the rules applicable to a particular kind of licence, the event of sale of liquor in whatever premises pertaining to a licence issued under the Act attracts the impugned Rule 5. Hence, I conclude that the amended Rule 5 is applicable to CL-9 licences also. — B.N. Raghuvaran and Others v State of Karnataka and Others, 1993(9) Kar. L.J. 235E.

R. 5, As amended — Object to contain proliferation of activity — Making liquor inaccessible on the Highways except these areas which fall within the Municipal areas — Not arbitrary or unreasonable — Difference noticed between areas not irrational.

S. Rajendra Babu and B.K. Somashekara, JJ., Held:—The object of the impugned rule, it appears to us is that the activity of selling liquor in certain areas is sought to be eliminated, thus making liquor inaccessible in such areas. Admittedly the activity of selling liquor is obnoxious or deleterious to the health of the people. In fact Article 47 of the Constitution enjoins on the State to introduce prohibition as State policy. Indeed, if introduction of prohibition which was dear to the Father of the Nation is not possible either for administrative or financial reasons, the only alternative so far as the State is concerned is to contain the proliferation of the activity. The amended rule partially promotes that policy by making liquor inaccessible on the Highways except those areas which fall within the Municipal areas. The policy as such cannot be found fault with. When prohibition itself cannot be introduced for various reasons, the only other alternative for the State is to contain or regulate the trade thereto. If the proclivity to drink is contained, at any rate in certain areas, the tendency thereto is reduced to some extent. May be the manner in which the reasons are set forth in the statement of objections may not be very articulate. But the effect of the rule is to that effect. If this is the objective, we cannot say the action on the part of the State or the policy thereto is either arbitrary or unreasonable. If there is a shop within the Municipal limits and if such shop is allowed to sell liquor and, if only shops outside the Municipal area are sought to be eliminated, we do not find that there is any unreasonable classification for one falls within the Municipal area or the other falls outside the town. Therefore, classification cannot be stated to be bad, for it is based on discernible grounds. Highway specified in the Schedule means except such parts thereof as are situated within any Municipal areas, is hereby declared to be a National Highway and, in the definition, it is made clear that any 'Municipal area' means with a population of 20,000 or more, the control or management of which is entrusted to Corporation or a Municipal Council or a Town Area Council, a Town Committee or any other authority. The definition of the areas falling within the Municipal area and outside, is recognised in the National Highways Act also. Similar is the position even in regard to nationalisation of routes arising under the Motor Vehicles Act, wherein the operation of any transport vehicle on a route is nationalised, exception is made to the areas falling within the Municipality or a local authority. In that way, it is accepted in all enactments the difference between the areas falling within the Municipal area or outside the Municipal area, even though the route or road is a Highway. Therefore, the difference noticed by the Department is not irrational. — Karnataka Wine Merchants' Association (R), Bangalore and Others v State of Karnataka and Others, 1994(2) Kar. L.J. 570 (DB).

Rule 5(1) — Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) Rules, 1958. — As amended by Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) (Second Amendment) Rules, 2000, Rule 5-A. — Bar licence — Renewal of — Rejection of application for renewal on ground that school is likely to be opened in future within distance of 100 metres from premises licensed to run bar — Rejection of application on such ground is to be held bad in law — Licence has to be renewed if condition regarding location of licensed premises is satisfied on date of renewal.

It is not in dispute the applications filed by the petitioners have to be considered by the authorities based on the location of the premises as on the date of considering renewal or granting licence afresh. Just because a person is going to construct a school building or a school will be inaugurated in the near future that cannot be a ground for the authorities to reject in anticipation of opening of a school. Either the Excise Act or the Rules do not provide for rejection of the renewal application on the ground that in the near future a school will be opened. In the instant case, the authorities have held that the Gnana Despika School building is under progress and therefore the renewal application of the petitioner has been rejected. If the theory of the respondent is adopted, it will be difficult in the future to grant any licence in favour of any person. A rival businessman may object on the ground that either a school or a temple will be established within the prohibited distance from the shop in question by applying the above principles all such applications have to be rejected. Under the circumstances, the reasonings given by the authorities to reject the renewal of the petitioners are also bad in law. Therefore, in anticipation that a school building will be opened in the future cannot be a ground for the authorities to reject the renewal applications of the petitioners. — S.N. Chinappa v State of Karnataka and Others, 2001(5) Kar. L.J. 234.

Rule 5(1) and 5(3) — Constitution of India, Articles 47 and 226 — Grant of liquor licence — Conditions for — Information given by applicant for licence must undergo and satisfy "strict scrutiny" test — State Government should not treat its right to part with its privilege of vending liquors only as means of earning more and more revenue — Fulfilment of constitutional obligation is more important than earning revenue.

S.R. Bannurmath and Subhash B. Adl, JJ., Held: The authority has not at all taken the measurement in compliance with Rule 5 of the Rules. The Revenue Inspector has utterly failed to discharge his function in terms of Rule 5. In a casual way, he draws a mahazar by making alleged enquiry. He does not take the actual measurement, he accepts the sketch given by the applicant. He does not make verification of the measurement in pursuance of the sketch submitted by the applicant. The Excise Inspector or the authority, which is required to verify the spot cannot mechanically submit a report. He owes a duty to take exact measurement from the center point where the shop is sought to be established to find out as to whether there are any objectionable institutions within the radius of 100 metres from the said point. From the records it appears that, with an intention to grant licence or permission, the report is submitted. . . . The Court direct the respondent 1 to take necessary action against respondents 2 and 3 for dereliction of their duties in granting permission to respondent 4 in utter violation of Rule 5 of the Rules. The Court direct the State to take steps to implement Rule 5 in its true spirit. — Prof. G. Shalimath and Others v State of Karnataka And Others, 2009(1) Kar. L.J. 287B (DB).

Rule 5(1) and 5(3) — Constitution of India, Articles 47 and 226 — Interpretation of statutes — Rule prohibiting location of liquor shops within distance of 100 metres from educational or religious institutions, hospitals, offices of Government, residential locality, etc. — Object of — Object is to make liquor inaccessible to people in area — Rule providing for determination of prohibited distance by taking measurement along "nearest path by which pedestrian ordinarily reaches" must be interpreted in furtherance of object of Rule, and not with object to find excuse to grant licence to earn revenue, but to find way to impose restriction within framework of rule.

S.R. Bannurmath and Subhash B. Adl, JJ., Held: 'Ordinarily' means regular, usual, normal, common, often recurring, according to established order, settled, customary and reasonable. Thus, the meaning of 'ordinarily' cannot be extended to mean only the designated road or pathway and not access otherwise available to the consumer of liquor shop. If the object is to restrict the consumer within 100 metres of the educational institution and to make it inaccessible in certain areas, this rule has to be interpreted in furtherance of the said object. Rule 5 is framed in furtherance with the object under Article 47 of the Constitution of India, it cannot be said that the measurement has to be taken along with footpath then to a zebra cross designated for crossing and again to footpath and shop. If otherwise there is a way to reach the liquor shop and it is accessible to the consumer, it cannot be ignored that such a way is available for consumer, who can ordinarily reach. It is unacceptable that the consumer of liquor will have to go to liquor shop according to traffic signal. — Prof. G. Shambhush and Others v State of Karnataka And Others, 2009(1) Kar. L.J. 287B (DB).

Rule 5(1) and 5(3) — Karnataka Traffic Control Act, 1960, Section 14(2)(r) — Karnataka Traffic Control Rules, 1979, Rule 6 — Karnataka Traffic Control (Regulation of Traffic on Highways) Rules, 1979, Rule 5(4) and 5(6) — Karnataka Police Act, 1963, Section 69(a) — Constitution of India, Article 226 — Location of liquor shops — Restriction regarding — Rule prohibiting liquor shops within distance of 100 metres from educational or religious institutions, hospitals, etc. — Distance prohibited to be determined by taking measurement along "nearest path by which pedestrian ordinarily reaches", and not zig-zag path in conformity with Traffic Rules which requires pedestrian to walk on footpath and cross road only at point thereon at which pedestrian crossing is provided — Where offending liquor shop is within radius of 50 metres from educational institution from which it can be reached by pedestrian by just crossing road through opening in its median without requiring to walk down footpath till pedestrian crossing, distance required to be walked to reach liquor shop from educational institution is just 84 metres as per report of Commissioner approved by Court, liquor shop, held, is directly hit by prohibition, location cannot be justified on ground that distance along zig-zag path is more than 100 metres — Mandannus lies to authority concerned to shift liquor shop beyond radius of 100 metres from central point of educational institution.

S.R. Bannurmath and Subhash B. Adl. J., Held: Rule 5, sub-rule (3) mandates that, no licence shall be granted for sale of liquor within a distance of 100 metres from religious, educational, hospitals, etc. in the State or Central Government or local authorities or religious institutions in any locality where the inhabitants are predominantly belonging to Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes. In order to ascertain the distance, sub-rule (3) specifies that the distance shall be measured along the nearest path by which the pedestrian ordinarily reaches the shop. The argument that, measurement has to be taken along the footpath till it reaches the zebra crossing and from there the measurement is to be taken to the other side of the footpath to reach the shop is not acceptable. The object behind the provision of Rule 5 is to restrict the liquor shop in certain areas. The object of Rule 5 is not to find an excuse to grant licence, but to find the best the restriction can be imposed within the framework of the Rules. Even the authorities have understood that the measurement is by means of radius from the center point of the shop and not the zigzag measurement along with footpath, zebra crossing etc. In this case, just across the gate of the IIMB, there is an opening of median and on the other side, there is a wine shop and if straight measurement is taken, it is less than 50 metres, if the measurement is taken as available pathway i.e., at the opening, it is 84 metres. . . . If the radius is this criteria, then irrespective as to the existing road or otherwise, the prohibition or restriction should be imposed in opening of liquor shop within the radius of 100 metres from the center point of the educational institution or religious institution, hospitals or State or Central Government offices, etc., as contemplated under Rule 5 of the Rules. It is clear that, the authority empowered to grant licence or permission have not discharged their function in true spirit of the Rule 5 of the Rules. The mandate of the Rule 5 is not observed in its true spirit and in a very casual way the permission is granted. It is also noticed that the licences to liquor shops are given in utter disregard to the intention of Article 47 of the Constitution and restriction imposed under the Rules. The licences are granted by circumventing the rules to the advantage of the shop owner. By this means, the State instead of protecting the interest of public in the matter of public health, security impact on the society has allowed liquor vending as if it is fundamental right to vend liquor. The time has come for the State to take serious look in implementing the law relating to vending of intoxicating drink and drugs to make a safe and healthy society. — Prof. G. Shambhush and Others v State of Karnataka And Others, 2009(1) Kar. L.J. 287A (DB).

Rule 5(4) — Licensed premises — Order to shift — Giving of opportunity to licensee of being heard is necessary before directing him to shift his premises.

The respondents have not provided reasonable opportunity to the petitioners as required under sub-rule (4) of Rule 5 of the Karnataka License (General Conditions) Rules, 1967. So, under these circumstances, before calling upon the petitioners to shift their business premises to any other premises, the respondents have to give an opportunity for the petitioners and only after hearing the petitioners the respondents can pass such an order. Under these circumstances, the matter has to be reconsidered by the licensing authority after giving an opportunity to the petitioners and till such time the respondents shall have no right to interfere with the business of the petitioners as the respondents have collected licence fee for the whole year. — S.N. Chinnappa v State of Karnataka and Others, 2001(5) Kar. L.J. 234.

Rule 5(4) — Petitioner is holder of CL-2 licence — To run a Wine Store — Respondent 3-Chief Officer raised objection — Store is close to the petitioner's house — Held, impugned communication at Annexure-K is valid as no notice was issued to petitioner, accordingly petitioner is to appear before respondent 2-the Deputy Commissioner of Excise.

Ganjal, J., Held: The petitioner was issued with a CL-2 licence for running a Wine Store. Suffice it to say objections were raised by respondent 3 on the ground that the said wine store is close to a Mosque. Aggrieved by the same the petitioner is before this Court only grievance of the petitioner is that there is a non-compliance with Rule 5(4) of the Karnataka Excise Licences (General Conditions) Rules, 1967. Indeed, a perusal of Annexure-K discloses that such exercise has not been done inasmuch as before passing the impugned communication at Annexure-K no notice was issued and the petitioner was not heard. Till the entire proceedings are concluded, Annexure-K shall not be given effect to. — Popular Wines, Kusthalanagar, Mysore, Tulu v The Excise Commissioner in Karnataka, Bangalore and Chikmagalur, 2018(2) Kar. L.J. 184.

6. Sign Boards, etc.—Every licensee shall affix a sign board in a conspicuous place of the shop showing the nature of the shop, name of licensee and retail price in such language as may be understood by the majority of the residents in the locality.

7. Entrance and Exit—There shall be only one and the same entrance and exit for the shop.

8. Mixture Prohibited.—The licensee shall not mix any material injurious to the health or mix anything to decrease or increase the strength of the liquor or its intoxicating power.

9. Employment of Women and Certain others prohibited.—(1) Licensees shall not employ any women [xxx].

(2) He shall not employ any person who has been convicted.

(3) The licensee shall not employ, in any capacity, a person who is below the age of 18 years or a person who is suffering from any contagious disease.

CASE LAW

Rule 9 — Employment of women — Prohibition of — Rule must be understood as forbidding women being employed to serve liquor to customers — Rule must be interpreted strictly and must not be allowed to affect right of employer or employee beyond what is absolutely essential — Rule cannot be pressed into service to prevent employment of women artists in restaurants for purpose of singing or playing musical instruments.

Tirth S. Thakar, J. Held: The Rule, is in three parts, one dealing with employment of woman, the other employment of convicts and the third employment of any person who is below the age of 18 years or who is suffering from any contagious disease. Sub-rules (1) and (2) simply provide that the licensee shall not employ any woman or any person who has been convicted. If the intention was to forbid the licensee from employing women or convicts also "in any capacity" nothing prevented it from making a provision to that effect as indeed it has done in the case of minors and persons suffering from any contagious disease. This would imply that in so far as women are concerned, their employment is forbidden but not in every capacity. Such employment may in certain capacities and situations, be permissible. Employment of women under Rule 9 of the General Conditions Rules, is forbidden only in so far as the sale and service of liquor is concerned. There may be other capacities in which a woman may be employed by the licensee, which capacities may be wholly unconnected with the actual service of liquor to the customers. Rule 9 imposes a restriction which must be interpreted strictly so that the same does not operate to affect the right of the employer or the employee beyond what is absolutely essential. Rule 9 must be understood to forbid the licensee from employing women with a view to serving liquor to the customers or handling liquor at any stage. The intention of the rule-making authority obviously is to prevent the licensee from engaging women for promoting the sale of liquor. That purpose can be served well even when the provision is understood in a restricted sense. Suffice it to say that Rule 9 does not forbid employment of a female artist whether for instrumental or vocal music so long as any such artist is not employed to serve or handle liquor for the customers visiting any such place of public entertainment. — S. Shankaragouda v The Commissioner of Police, Bangalore, 1998(2) Kar. L.J. 494E.

Rule 9 — Karnataka Police Act, 1963, Section 31 — Liquor shop — Facilities provided like — Live music — Songs by men and women — Police tried to control — Petitioner contends that Police have no powers except Excise Officials — Provisions of both the Acts, Rules and Regulations discussed at length — Finally, held, Police are having powers to enter premises to control the business being carried by petitioner thus writ petition is dismissed.

S. Abdul Nazeer, J. Held: The petitioner is a CL-9 licence holder under the Karnataka Excise Act, 1965. She has been carrying on the business at No. 49/L, Mission Road, Bangalore. Under the said licence, she is authorised to provide liquor along with refreshment or food for the customers. The contention of the petitioner is that her business is under the control of Excise Department created under the provisions of the Excise Act. It is further contended that she has been carrying on the business within the territorial limits of the local police. Respondents are periodically visiting her business premises and are exercising control in their own way though they are not vested with such power and jurisdiction in view of the bar contained under Section 51 of the Act and the corresponding Rules, namely, Karnataka Excise (Entry, Inspection and Investigation Authorisation) Rules, 1967. The respondents tried to interfere with the business of the petitioner with regard to the facilities provided like live music, songs sung by men and women along with musical instruments. The licensing authority or the officer so authorised may, if need be, seek assistance of any other authority or authorities during such inspection. Therefore, once the place in question is a public place, the Police have access as a matter of right to enter the premises. He concludes by submitting that having regard to the different provisions of the Excise Act and the Police Act, petitioner is not right in contending that the Police have no power or authority to enter and inspect the business premises of the petitioner. The empowerment under Section 51 is necessary only for the purpose mentioned in clauses (a) to (c) and for the purpose of Section 54, the Police Officer has authority to enter any place as defined under the Act. A conjoint reading of these provisions would clearly indicate that the Police Officer is authorized to enter the premises of the petitioner holding CL-9 licence and carrying on the business of bar and restaurant. It is also relevant to notice some of the provisions of the Karnataka Police Act, 1963. The Police Act has been enacted to provide uniform law for regulation of police force in the State of Karnataka, maintenance of public order, for prevention of allied matters and for certain other purposes. . . . In the present case, the question is whether the police have power or authority to enter the premises of the petitioner where she has been carrying on the business having regard to the different provisions of the Excise Act and the Police Act. There is no merit in this writ petition. It is accordingly dismissed. — Smt. Manjula v The Commissioner of Police, Bangalore City, Bangalore and Another 2013(2) Kar. L.J. 369.

10. Liquor not to be sold to certain persons, etc.—(1) No liquor shall be sold or otherwise given to the following persons, namely:

- insane persons;
- persons known or believed to be drunk;
- persons known or suspected to be about to take part in riot or disturbance of public peace or any other crime;
- Excise Officials, Police Officers, Railway Servants and Bus Chauffeur, on duty, or in uniform;
- persons below the age of twenty-one years.

(2) No quantity of liquor shall be allowed to be taken out of shop except to the extent permitted by the rules under the Excise Act, 1965.

CASE LAW

Rule 10(1)(c) — Criminal Procedure Code, 1973, Sections 2(c) — Excise offence — Criminal proceedings initiated against licensee for — Sale of liquor to persons below age of 21 years. Where allegations make out ingredients of offence, proceedings to be quashed merely on ground that offence is non-cognizable. Offence, held is cognizable.

In view of the clear provisions of Section 52 of the Excise Act, offence comes within the definition of Section 2(c) of the Code of Criminal Procedure. . . . Under the circumstances, there is no merit in the petition. Accordingly, the petition is dismissed. — C.P. Tullu v Others v State by Ashoknagar Police Station, Bangalore, 2001(4) Kar. 601(B).

10-A. All shops shall remain closed on Gandhi Jayanthi Day.—All shops shall remain closed throughout the second day of October of every year.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this rule "throughout the second day of October of every year" means the period of twenty-four hours commencing from twelve mid-night between the first day and second day of the October of every year).

10-B. Prohibition of sale of liquor during election and counting days etc.—In order to comply with the directions of the Election Commission of India for banning sale or supply of liquor and intoxicants during election to the House of the people or State Legislative Assembly the District Magistrate may by notice in writing to the licensee require that any shop in which any liquor is sold or supplied shall be closed at such times and for such period as the Election Commission may consider necessary for conduct of peaceful, fair and free elections. The licensee shall not be entitled to any compensation for such closure.]

11. Certain Acts not permitted.—(1) No gambling, dance, gathering, feast or any kind of entertainment or unlawful act shall be permitted in such premises.

(2) The licensee shall sell liquor only in the approved shop and shall not sell in such premises any article other than such article and except to the extent permissible in accordance with the terms of the licence).

CASE LAW

Rule 11 — Entertainment — Prohibition of, in place where sale of liquor is licensed — Prohibition is of only unlawful entertainment — does not forbid live-band or music in restaurant licensed to sell food and refreshments.

Singh Thakur, J. Held: The words used in Rule 11(1) of Excise Rules (General Conditions) Rules, 1967, are "any kind of entertainment" and not "any kind of amusement". The term "entertainment" has not been defined either in the Excise Act or in the Rules mentioned above. It has not been defined even in Police Act. The Amusement Licensing Order issued under the same. The expression "Entertainment" has a wider meaning. Any such wide meaning does not fit into the scheme of Rule 11 of the General Conditions Rules. That is because, if "Entertainment" is understood in wider sense the rule would forbid the licensee from serving food and refreshment in a place which is licensed for the sale of liquor. A licence is issued to authorize sale of liquor only in places where food and refreshment is also served. The wider meaning given to the expression "entertainment" has no application to Rule 11 in which the said expression has been used in a restricted sense and ought to be understood in the context in which it appears. When so viewed, the expression Rule 10-A inserted by GSR 282, dated 23-9-1982, w.e.f. 23-9-1982.

Rule 11 substituted by GSR 16, dated 6-2-1990, w.e.f. 6-2-1990.

"any kind of entertainment" in Rule 11, cannot include playing of music whether live or taped. The expression any kind of entertainment appears in the company of the expression 'unlawful act' and must therefore take its colour from the said expression so as to be understood to mean an entertainment which has an element of tendency of being unlawful. . . . Rule 11 of the General Conditions Rules, does not forbid live music in a Restaurant holding a C.L-9 licence for serving liquor, food and refreshment. — R. Shankaragouda v. 11-A. Prohibition of publication of advertisements relating to intoxicants etc.—(1) No licensee or any person on his behalf shall use the name and other details contained in the label of the brand of liquor approved by the Excise Commissioner under Rule 15 of the Karnataka Excise (Bottling of Liquor) Rules, 1967 for advertising the sale or consumption of liquor, by way of printing or publishing in any newspaper, news sheet, book, leaflet, booklet, or any other single or periodical publication or displaying hoardings or in any other manner on highways, in lanes, by lanes or in public places, or cinematographic film or slides or sign board, balloon, parachute or any announcement made by any means or producing or transmitting light sound or smoke, as a means or method of attracting public attention;

Provided that nothing contained in sub-rule (1) shall apply to catalogues or price lists.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this rule advertisement included the advertisement made by the licensee or by any person on his behalf of any product or material, other than liquor, with the name, figures, pictures, emblems, logos or pattern and style of letters, art work, colour combination etc., resembling or identical to the name and other details of liquor contained in the label approved by the Excise Commissioner under Rule 15 of the Karnataka Excise (Bottling of Liquor) Rules, 1967.

12. Intimation to Police Officers.—The licensee shall give intimation to the Police Officers of any thief or person suspected to have committed any offence when such person is in his shop.

13. Customers not to be allowed to stay at night.—The licensee shall not allow any person other than a member of his family or his authorized servant in the shop during nights after the time fixed for closing the shop.

Explanation.—For the purposes of this rule 'Family' means the wife, or husband, legitimate children and step children or any other member residing with and wholly dependent on such licensee.

R. 15(1-A) — Waiver of interest on the excise revenue arrears payable under Rule 15 — Whether beyond the rule-making power of the State Government?

K.A. Swami, Actg. C.J. and L. Sreenivasa Reddy, J., Held.—No provision of the Act has been pointed out to us which places the impugned rule beyond the power of the rule-making authority or indicates that the impugned rule is contrary to any of the provisions contained in the Act. We have already pointed out that interest is levied only under Rule 15 of the rules which is framed in exercise of the rule-making power. If that be so, it follows that in exercise of the very rule-making power, the State Government can either modify Rule 15 by modifying the rate of interest or mode of recovery or by completely waiving the interest. Therefore, we are of the view that Rule 15-A cannot be held to be beyond the rule-making power of the State Government. — Ramesh v State of Karnataka and Another, 1993(2) Kar. L.J. 355 (DB).

(2) When a licence is suspended, the Deputy Commissioner may make alternate arrangements for the sale of liquor. Any loss which the Government may incur in this behalf may be recovered from the licensee and the Deputy Commissioner may forfeit the deposits either in full or in part with the approval of the Excise Commissioner.

Re. 17 & 17-A — Circular dated 2-5-1984 and 24-10-1984 — Letter number EXE. SO. 28/1978-89, dated 13-4-1986 — Circular dated 2-6-1984 not in conformity with law: transfer on basis of circular unsustainable.

S. Mohan, C.J. and N.Y. Hanumanthappa, J., Held.—The entire case is based on the Circular dated 2-5-1984. As rightly pointed out in the order dated 13-4-1986 this Circular is contrary to law. Only when the authority has power to do something and if he makes a promise and if the petitioner acts on such promise the question of equitable estoppel would arise. Where contrary to the statutory provisions and where there is no scope for transfer by will then the transfer is sought to be effected by merely payment of Rs. 500/- based on the Circular, such a transfer is ab initio void. If this position is arrived at, the demand for Rs. 12,500/- treating this as a fresh licence is perfectly valid. — T. Thimappa and Others v The Excise Commissioner in Karnataka, Bangalore and Others, 1992(1) Kar. L.J. 360 (DB) : ILR 1991 Kar. 3710 (DB).

Rules 17 and 17-B — Bar licence — Transfer of — Not transferable except with previous permission of Deputy Commissioner — Licensee intending to transfer his licence has to make application therefor with payment of prescribed fees, and Deputy Commissioner can transfer licence in favour of person named in application only if such person is eligible for grant of licence under Act — Licensee, not capable of running business himself, cannot permit another person to carry on business on basis of lease agreement or power of attorney or like — Such arrangement to run business is not permissible, and where it is reported to, licence is liable to be cancelled.

Inserted by Notification No. FD 25 PES 2003, dated 20-6-2003, w.e.f. 20-6-2003
Proviso substituted by Notification No. FD 25 PES 2003, dated 20-6-2003, w.e.f. 20-6-2003

The Clause 9 licence stand in the name of respondent 3 who has submitted the applications for renewals. Simply because the name of Hotel Vandana is written thereon, it does not confer any right on the petitioner. No order under Rule 17 of the Karnataka Excise Licences (General Conditions) Rules, 1967 have been produced and thus on the basis of any agreement registered or unregistered the petitioner cannot have the right to vend liquor in respect of the licence issued to respondent 3. The State has to be very careful while granting the licence. If a person is not capable of running the business himself or through his staff should not ordinarily be entitled for any licence. Sub-letting or sub-leasing of premises where a business is carried on is also not permitted. In cases where it is found that on the basis of some agreement the business is being carried without permission of the Commissioner, it was appropriate that even the licence granted to the person who has permitted to delegate his power to somebody else should have been cancelled. No person can carry on business vending the liquor without a proper licence and if vending of the liquor is permitted, under such arrangement or agreement it would frustrate the very object of having the control over the licensee or makes him even in some cases criminally liable. The petitioner has locus standi to challenge the order of the Deputy Commissioner for transfer of the place of business and the petition is therefore liable to be dismissed. It may also be observed that the Excise Commissioner should take immediate steps in cases like the present one where the business is not being carried on by the licensee but by some other person on the basis of lease agreement or the power of attorney or the like, then the proper step would be to cancel the licence itself. — Mahabala Uggappa Adappa v Excise Commissioner and Others 2000(2) Kar. L.J. Sh. N. 4.

Rules 17 and 17-B — Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) Rules, 1967, Rule 3(9) — Bar licence — Cancellation — unauthorised transfer of — Transfer involves parting with ownership of business of running bar for which licence was granted, and transfer becomes unauthorised attracting penalty of cancellation of licence. If transfer has been effected without previous permission of designated authority and without payment of requisite transfer fee — Act does not contemplate that licensee must himself run bar by being present on premises all time — He is not prohibited from managing business through servant or agent — Power of attorney simpliciter granted to agent to manage business does not amount to transfer of business — Unless there is finding that licensee has divested himself of ownership of business, licence cannot be cancelled — Cancellation of licence in absence of such finding, held, amounts to wrongful preventing licensee from carrying on her business.

Rule 17 of the Karnataka Excise Licences (General Conditions) Rules, 1967 provides that the right of retail vend of liquor shall not be transferred by the licensee except with the previous permission of the Deputy Commissioner. Rule 17-A provides that in the event of death of the licensee during the currency of the licence, the Deputy Commissioner may, on an application by the legal heirs of the deceased with the previous sanction of the Excise Commissioner, transfer the licence in their favour. Rule 17-B provides for transfer of licences.

provides that in regard to licences issued for sale of Indian liquor or foreign liquor or both, in Form No. CL-1 or CL-2 or CL-7 or CL-9 under the Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) Rules, 1967, the Deputy Commissioner may on an application by the licensee and subject to payment of transfer fee equivalent to the annual licence fee specified and with the prior approval of the Excise Commissioner, transfer such licence in favour of any person named by such licensee, if such person is eligible for grant of a licence. . . . The State has the exclusive privilege and right of manufacturing and selling intoxicating liquor. Grant of a CL-9 licence is a privilege or permission granted by the State to the licensee to sell liquor in the manner prescribed in the licence. Parting with the possession and control of the business covered by the CL-9 licence would amount to transfer of such privilege and licence and such an act without the permission of the licensing authority, will be illegal and violative of the terms of licence. But, if the licensee retains possession and control, but only authorises a servant or an agent to manage the business on his behalf, there is no illegality or infringement of the conditions of licence. In fact clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 29 contemplate the business of a licensee being run by any agent or servant with the express or implied permission or authority of the licensee. . . . A general power of attorney is executed as a matter of convenience. By executing such a power of attorney, the executant (principal) provides for management of his affairs/business/properties, by the agent. A power of attorney is normally executed when the executant is not personally able to attend to his affairs/business due to absence or due to incapacity or other preoccupation. The acts of the agent are binding on the principal in spite of the absence of the principal (executant) granting the power of attorney, the possession and control of the affairs/business remain with the principal. A general power of attorney granted to an Agent to manage the business of the principal does not create any right, title or interest in the asset or business which is the subject-matter of the power of attorney, in favour of the attorney holder. Power of attorney is revocable at the will and pleasure of the principal. In short, under a general power of attorney simpliciter (either general or special), there is a mere authority to act, unaccompanied by any interest of the agent in the subject-matter of the power of attorney. A common example of such power of attorney is what is granted by a member of family, to another family member to run/manage the business/affairs of the grantor. . . . When companies and firms can apply and obtain licences and run the business through their authorised agents or employees, there is nothing per se objectionable about a person giving a general power of attorney to his family member or friend, or an employee, to run a Bar and Restaurant. A company or firm or individual may own a chain of Restaurants all over the country, or State and may grant a power of attorney to an agent/employee to look after the day-to-day management and to apply for licences every year. Mere execution of a power of attorney by the licensee to a family member or employee or friend, cannot lead to the suspension or cancellation of the licence or refusal to grant or renew the licence. . . . Thus, only if it is established that the possession and control of the licensed business has been transferred to someone else, or that the licensee has not retained any control over the licensed

The Clause 9 licence stand in the name of respondent 3 who has submitted the applications for renewals. Simply because the name of Hotel Vandana is written thereon, it does not confer any right on the petitioner. No order under Rule 17 of the Karnataka Excise Licences (General Conditions) Rules, 1967 have been produced and thus on the basis of any agreement registered or unregistered the petitioner cannot have the right to vend liquor in respect of the licence issued to respondent 3. The State has to be very careful while granting the licence. If a person is not capable of running the business himself or through his staff should not ordinarily be entitled for any licence. Sub-letting or sub-leasing of premises where a business is carried on is also not permitted. In cases where it is found that on the basis of some agreement the business is being carried without permission of the Commissioner, it was appropriate that even the licences granted to the person who has permitted to delegate his power to somebody else should have been cancelled. No person can carry on business of vending the liquor without a proper licence and if vending of the liquor is permitted, under such arrangement or agreement it would frustrate the very object of having the control over the licences or to make him even in some cases criminally liable. The petitioner has no locus standi to challenge the order of the Deputy Commissioner for transfer of the place of business and the petition is therefore liable to be dismissed. . . . It may also be observed that the Excise Commissioner should take immediate steps in cases like the present one where the business is not being carried on by the licensee but by some other person on the basis of lease agreement or the power of attorney or the like, then the proper step would be to cancel the licence itself. — Mihabala Uggappa Adappa v Excise Commissioner and Others, 2000(2) Kar. L.J. Sh. N. 4.

Rules 17 and 17-B — Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) Rules, 1968, Rule 3(9) — Bar licence — Cancellation for unauthorised transfer of — Transfer involves parting with ownership of business of running bar for which licence was granted, and transfer becomes unauthorised attracting penalty of cancellation of licence, only if transfer has been effected without previous permission of designated authority and without payment of requisite transfer fee — Act does not contemplate that licensee must himself run bar by being present on premises all time — He is not prohibited from managing business through servant or agent — Power of attorney simpliciter granted to agent to manage business does not amount to transfer of business to agent — Unless there is finding that licensee has divested himself ownership of business, licence cannot be cancelled — Cancellation of licence in absence of such finding, held, amounts to wrongful preventing licensee from carrying on her business.

Rule 17 of the Karnataka Excise Licences (General Conditions) Rules, 1967 provides that the right of retail vend of liquor shall not be transferred by the licensee except with the previous permission of the Deputy Commissioner. Rule 17-A provides that in the event of absence of the licensee during the currency of the licence, the Deputy Commissioner may, on an application by the legal heirs of the licensee with the previous sanction of the Excise Commissioner, transfer the licence in their favour. Rule 17-B provides for transfer of licences

provides that in regard to licences issued for sale of Indian liquor or foreign liquor or both, in Form No. CL-1 or CL-2 or CL-7 or CL-9 under the Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) Rules, 1968, the Deputy Commissioner may on an application by the licensee and subject to payment of transfer fee equivalent to the annual licence fee specified and with the prior approval of the Excise Commissioner, transfer such licence in favour of any person named by such licensee, if such person is eligible for grant of a licence. . . . The State has the exclusive privilege and right of manufacturing and selling intoxicating liquor. Grant of a CL-9 licence is a privilege or permission granted by the State to the licensee to sell liquor in the manner prescribed in the licence. Parting with the possession and control of the business covered by the CL-9 licence would amount to transfer of such privilege and licence and such an act without the permission of the licensing authority, will be illegal and violative of the terms of licence. But, if the licensee retains possession and control, but only authorises a servant or an agent to manage the business on his behalf, there is no illegality or infringement of the conditions of licence. In fact clauses (b) and (c) of sub-section (1) of Section 29 contemplates the business of a licensee being run by any agent or servant with the express or implied permission or authority of the licensee. . . . A general power of attorney is executed as a matter of convenience. By executing such a power of attorney, the executant (principal) provides for management of his affairs/business/properties, by the agent. A power of attorney is normally executed when the executant is not personally able to attend to his affairs/business due to absence or due to incapacity or other preoccupation. The acts of the agent are binding on the principal. In spite of the absence of the principal (executant) granting the power of attorney, the possession and control of the affairs/business remain with the principal. A general power of attorney granted to an Agent to manage the business of the principal does not create any right, title or interest in the asset or business which is the subject-matter of the power of attorney, in favour of the attorney holder. Power of attorney is revocable at the will and pleasure of the principal. In short, under a general power of attorney simpliciter (either general or special), there is a mere authority to act, unaccompanied by any interest of the agent in the subject-matter of the power of attorney. A common example of such power of attorney is what is granted by a member of family, to another family member to run/manage the business/affairs of the grantor. . . . When companies and firms can employ and obtain licences and run the business through their authorised agents or employees, there is nothing per se objectionable about a person giving a general power of attorney to his family member or friend, or an employee, to run a Bar and Restaurant. A company or firm or individual may own a chain of Restaurants all over the country or State and may grant a power of attorney to an agent/employee to look after the day-to-day management and to apply for licences every year. Mere execution of a power of attorney by the licensee to a family member or employee or friend, cannot lead to suspension or cancellation of the licence or refusal to grant or renew the licence. . . . Thus, only if it is established that the possession and control of the licensed business has been transferred to someone else, or that the licensee has not retained any control over the licensed business, or where there is a transfer of licence without permission, the licence will be liable to be cancelled. On the other hand, if the licensee continues to have control of the licensed business, but runs the business through a servant or an authorised agent, (that is attorney holder) then there is no violation of the terms and conditions of licence, irrespective of whether the licensee lives in the city/place where the business premises is situated. The question of cancellation of the licence will not arise, in such a case. . . . In this case, there is no finding that the licensee petitioner has parted with the possession of the licensed premises or the control of the business to anyone else, in particular to the power of attorney holder. Nor has the licence been transferred by the petitioner to anyone else. The power of attorney was granted to a family member, even prior to the date of the licence being transferred from the name of the petitioner's mother to the petitioner. The petitioner obtained transfer of the licence from the name of her mother to her name by making an application through the said power of attorney holder. Grant of a power of attorney by a licensee to a family member, to manage the affairs or business of the licensee, cannot be considered as parting with the possession or transferring the control or transferring the licence to someone else. The respondent has completely overlooked this aspect of the matter and has misconstrued the observations of this Court in Mishra's case. Hence, the petition is allowed. Consequently, the petitioner will be entitled to continue her business. She will also be entitled to claim appropriate refund of licence fee in regard to the period during which she has been wrongfully prevented from carrying on the business by the impugned order. — Geetha v State of Karnataka and Others, 2000(2) Kar. L.J. 883.

17-A. Transfer in the event of death.—In the event of death of the licensee or the lessee during the currency of the licence or lease the Deputy Commissioner may on an application by the legal heirs of the deceased with the previous sanction of the Excise Commissioner, transfer the licence or the lease as the case may be, in their favour.

17-B. Transfer of licence in other cases.—(1) Notwithstanding anything contained in Rule 2, licences issued—

- (i) for Sale of Indian Liquor (other than arrack) or Foreign Liquor or both, in Form No. CL-1 (Wholesale licence) or CL-2 (retail shop licence) or CL-6A (Star Hotel Licence) or CL-7 (Hotel and Boarding House Licence) or CL-8 (Refreshment room (Bar) Licence under the Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) Rules, 1968; or
- (ii) for sale of Beer under the Karnataka Excise (Lease of Right of Retail Vend of Beer) Rules, 1976;

 2. Rule 17-B inserted by GSR 94, dated 23-3-1976 and shall be deemed to have come into force w.e.f. 1-4-1976.
 3. Inserted by Notification No. FD 03 PES 2007(2), dated 25-3-2007, w.e.f. 25-3-2007.

The Deputy Commissioner may on an application by the licensee and (subject to payment of transfer fee equivalent to twice the annual licence fee) specified in Rule 8 of the Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquors) Rules, 1968 or Rule 5 of the Karnataka Excise (Lease of Right of Retail Vend of Beer, Rules, 1976, as the case may be, and with the prior approval of the Excise Commissioner, transfer such licence in favour of any person named by such licence, if such person is eligible for grant of a licence under the Karnataka Excise Act, 1965 or the rules made thereunder.

(2) Nothing in this rule shall apply to transfer of licence under Rule 17-A.]

18. Authorised persons only to be in-charge.—The licensed shop shall not be put in the charge of any person other than the one authorised by the licensee and in respect of whom a nowkarnama is issued by the Inspector of Excise. A Court-fee stamp of rupees two shall be affixed to each nowkarnama. A certificate from the Health authority to the effect that the persons so authorised are not suffering from any contagious disease, shall be produced by the licensee before the Inspector of Excise once in six months.

This provision shall be applicable to employees working in Breweries, Distilleries, Wineries and also toddy tappers working under toddy licensees.

Explanation.—For the purpose of this rule Health authority means "any Registered Medical Practitioner."

19. Report of breach.—Every breach of the conditions of the licence or provisions of the Karnataka Excise Act, 1965 by any servant of the licensee or other person shall immediately be reported by the licensee to the Excise Officer and the licensee shall comply with the orders of the Excise Officer in this behalf.

20. Licensee not to be interested in Excise Officer.—No licensee shall have any pecuniary transactions with the Officers of the Department of Excise, Pollen or Revenue.

21. Inspection.—(1) The following officers shall be authorized to inspect any shop,—

- (a) Any Excise Officer not below the rank of Sub-Inspector of Excise;
- (b) Any Revenue Officer not below the rank of Tahsildar;
- (c) Any Gazetted Officer of the Medical or Health Department.

(2) The licensee shall produce the receiptades kept for measurements of the liquor at the time of inspection.

(3) The licensee shall maintain an inspection book and other registers as may be prescribed by the Excise Commissioner and keep a record of all inspection notes and make proper entries. The inspection

CASE LAW

Rule 21 — Criminal Procedure Code, 1973, Section 482 — Prayer — For quashing of FIR — Offences — Under the Karnataka Excise Act, 1965 — Search conducted without recording the grounds for his belief — That such an offence committed. — Held, such probable defence is available only at the time of trial, thus writ petition is dismissed.

N. Ananda, J., Held: Search conducted by an officer, without recording of the grounds for his belief that an offence under the Act was likely or being committed would vitiate entire proceedings and investigation of first information would be abuse of process of law. . . . It is not possible to take into consideration the probable defence that may be available to petitioner during trial. At this stage, it is not possible to hold that there was violation of the provisions of Section 54 of the Act. Such contention can be raised only after final report is filed against petitioner. — Smt. Mahamunda v State of Karnataka, 2013(1) Kar. L.J. 178.

22. Conviction entails cancellation of all licences. — Where a licensee holds more than one licence and he is convicted for breach of conditions of any one of such licences, the other licences also may be cancelled.

23. Shifting of shops. — Subject to the restrictions specified in Rule 5, Deputy Commissioners may permit a licensee to shift the location of his shop from one place to another within the limits of a Grama Panchayat or within the [Municipal Area] or City Municipal Corporation] [on payment of an amount equivalent to [fifty per cent] of the licence fee charged on the licensee in respect of such shop.]

[Provided that the Excise Commissioner may permit shifting of location of a shop by any person holding a wholesale licence (CL-1) granted under clause (1) of Rule 3 of the Karnataka Excise (Sale of Indian and Foreign Liquor) Rules, 1968 to any place, within a District.]

[Provided further that subject to Rule 5, in case of CL-2 [and CL-3] licences, the Deputy Commissioner may permit a licensee to shift the location of his shop. —

9. Vessels in Brewery.—All mashtuns, coppers, coolers, fermenting and racking or settling vessels shall be so placed and fixed and backs so placed as to admit of the contents being accurately gauged or measured. Before taking into use all such vessels shall be gauged by the Inspecting Officer or by such any other Officer as may be deputed by the Deputy Commissioner for the purpose, in the presence of the licensee or his authorised agent, and the tables shall be constructed for showing the total capacity of each vessel in litres and in the case of mashtuns, racking or settling vessels, its capacity for each 1/2 c.m. in depth. In the case of underbacks, coppers and cooler, dimension tables only need be constructed.

10. Name of each room or vessel to be distinctly marked.—The name or an abbreviation thereof of each room or vessel shall be conspicuously marked and where more than one room or vessel is used for the same purpose they shall be distinguished by progressive numbers. Any room or vessel entered for a specific purpose shall be used for that purpose only.

11. Alterations, Repairs, etc.—No repairs shall be executed or additions or alterations made to either the buildings or the plant without the sanction in writing of the Commissioner. Minor repairs may be made with the written permission of the Deputy Commissioner.

12. Storage of Beer in Casks.—Where Beer is stored in casks which are used exclusively for storing and not for issue from the brewery, such casks shall be numbered consecutively and each shall have mark on both heads, its number and capacity which shall be entered in the register kept by the brewer in the form prescribed by the Commissioner and also the number of brew in which the Beer was manufactured.

13. Gauging Rods.—The Inspecting Officer shall be provided with proper gauging rods and standard saccharometer and Thermometer to which the licensee has got the approval of the Commissioner.

14. Brewing Book.—The licensee shall keep in the Brewery, a brewing book supplied by the Commissioner. This book shall be the property of Government which shall be accessible for inspection by the Inspecting Officer or any other Officer authorised in this behalf. This shall be replaced every quarter. The entries in this book shall be made by any responsible employee of the licensee, approved by the Deputy Commissioner. There shall be no mutilations or defacement of the entries already made.

15. Brewing Book maintenance.—The brewer shall enter in the proper columns atleast twenty-four hours before beginning to mash malt or grain or to dissolve sugar, the day and hour of brewing and in the "Remarks" column, the consecutive number of the brew and the word "Indian" or "English" as the case may be with date and hour of making entry, and atleast six hours before the time entered for mashing or dissolving, he shall enter separately in the proper columns the quantities of malt or unmalted corn, sugar and of hops or hop-substitutes to be used and the hour when all the worts will be drawn off the grains in the mash-tun. He shall also enter in the appropriate columns the dip and gravity of worts collected, the number and description of the vessel or vessels in which they have been collected and the date and hour of the entry. Such entry shall be made within one hour after the collection has been completed and if the worts are not collected before 6 p.m., the entry shall be made before 8 a.m. next morning. If fermentation has started before the requisite entry is made, the brewer shall enter the true original gravity of worts. Each entry shall be initialed by the brewer or his agent.

16. Brewing.—Beer shall be brewed from good materials and its quality shall be such as to satisfy the Commissioner. Wort shall not be brewed of a higher gravity than 1073°. Nothing shall be added to Beer after it has been racked and removed to a Beer store except fining or other materials approved by the Commissioner. Beer, in beer stores must not be diluted and any beer found in stores must not be diluted and any beer found adulterated will be liable for forfeiture. The forfeiture of beer, will not relieve the brewer from the penalty of fine or cancellation of licence prescribed under Rule 23.

17. Surveys.—Officers surveying of breweries shall make complete survey of the whole of the brewery room every day on which they will visit the brewery showing in the proper columns in the survey book, the form of which will be prescribed by the Commissioner, the condition of each vessel and the dip and gravity of each vessel containing fermenting worts, unless such wort shall be fining, which except in case of suspicion of fraudulent addition or removal of wort the surface need not be broken. A copy of each survey will be made in a similar book and will be left at the brewery for the information of the brewer.

18. Stock Book.—The licensee shall keep a stock account in such form as may be required by the Commissioner in which he shall enter the net quantity of beer brewed, the quantity, if any, returned and brought into stock after verification by the authorised Officers and the total quantity issued. Each issue within the State shall be accompanied by a permit in Form No. 3 issued by the Inspecting Officer. But the export permits shall be issued by the Commissioner. The stock book shall be checked atleast once in a week by the Inspecting Officer.

19. Corrections, etc., in the accounts.—No entry in any of the books kept by the brewer under these rules shall be erased or overwritten. If there may be any need of correction of any entry, a circle in ink or pencil should be drawn around the incorrect entry and correction be made with the initials of the person in charge. The Inspecting Officer shall initial the corrections during his next inspection. All errors shall be reported to the Deputy Commissioner by the Inspecting Officer and his directions shall be acted upon.

20. Samples.—Samples of wort in any stage of fermentation or of stored beer may be taken for analysis without payment by the Inspecting Officer or any Authorised Officer. The Inspecting Officer shall at least once in a quarter, forward the samples of wort in fermentation to the laboratory for analysis. On any other occasion, when the samples of wort or beer are taken, the Inspecting Officer shall submit a special report to the Deputy Commissioner explaining the reasons and the nature of analysis required. Samples of brewing material shall be taken only if required, by the Commissioner. When, however, there is large discrepancy between the quantity of malt or unmalted corn entered in the brewing book and that of the grains in the mash-tun, a sample of the grains should be taken and at once sent for analysis with a copy of entry in the brewing book, the dip of the grains in the mash-tun, the quantity represented by the dip and the percentage or increase or decrease. On this report and after examination of the samples, the Commissioner will pass such orders as he thinks fit.

21. Stock taking.—The stock of the beer in every brewery shall be taken atleast twice in each year by the Inspecting Officer or such other Officer authorised. Stock shall only be taken at other times by the Inspecting Officer or any other Officer so authorised, if there is any suspicion of fraudulent practices. In the former case immediate report shall be submitted to the Deputy Commissioner and in the latter, to the Commissioner, along with the explanation of the brewer for any excess or deficiency exceeding one per cent and any orders passed thereon shall be executed.

22. The charging and collection of duty.—The duty on all the beer from the brewery for the purpose of consumption shall be paid at such time as may be prescribed by the Government from time to time, into the Government Treasury, and the relative challan produced before the issue of the necessary permits. The Inspecting Officer shall submit a statement showing the quantity of beer issued and the amount of duty collected thereon every month to the Deputy Commissioner and a copy to the Commissioner.

23. Refund when and how made.—Where it is found that the brewer has paid any excess amount, he may claim its refund and if on verification his claim is found to be correct, the amount shall be refunded or adjusted towards the duty on any subsequent issues, the relevant entries being made under the initials of the Inspecting Officer on the permits towards which the adjustment is effected.

24. Quarters.—x x x x x.]

25. Breach of Rules.—In case of any breach of these rules or conditions of licence either by the licensee or by his employees, the Commissioner may suspend or cancel the licence or both and the licensee shall not be entitled to any compensation. The suspension or cancellation shall not prevent the prosecution of any person for any offence which he may commit against the provisions of the Karnataka Excise Act, 1965 or other law for the time being in force. If, on prosecution, the licensee or his employee is convicted by the Court, it shall be lawful for the Commissioner to declare his license forfeited.

26. The licensee to be bound by all additional Rules.—The brewer (licensee) shall be bound by all the additional rules for the control of breweries which may hereafter be prescribed under the existing law or under any law which may hereafter be enacted and by all special orders issued by the Commissioner with regard to individual brewery and shall cause all persons employed by him in his breweries to obey all such rules.

27. Appeal.—(1) Except as otherwise provided, an appeal shall lie,—

- (a) to the Deputy Commissioner from any order or proceedings taken under these rules by the Inspecting Officer or any other Officer authorized by him;
- (b) to the Commissioner from any order passed or proceedings taken or any appellate order passed by the Deputy Commissioner.

(2) The appeal under clause (a) of sub-rule (1) shall be preferred within sixty days and the appeal under clause (b) of sub-rule (1) shall be preferred within ninety days of the communication of the order appealed against.

27-A. Grant of License for Microbrewery.—Any person who desirous of obtaining a license for a Microbrewery shall apply to the Excise Commissioner in Form 4 through the Deputy Commissioner. The Application shall be accompanied by a treasury challan for having credited the fee specified in sub-rule (2) and full description of the premises, utensils and installed capacity of the Plant per day. The details in the application shall be checked either by the Deputy Commissioner or some other Officer duly authorized by him in this behalf, who shall certify to the fact, if he finds it correct, and forward it to the Commissioner. The Commissioner may grant Microbrewery license subject to conditions and restrictions specified in the Karnataka Excise Licences (General Conditions) Rules, 1967.]

28. Repeal and Savings.—All rules corresponding to the foregoing rules framed under any enactment repealed by Section 72 of the Act are hereby repealed:

Provided that the repeal shall not effect—

- (a) the previous operation of the rules so repealed or anything duly done or suffered thereunder, or
- (b) any right, privilege, obligation or liability accrued or incurred under any rule so repealed, or
- (c) any penalty, forfeiture or punishment incurred in respect of any offence committed against any rule so repealed, or
- (d) any investigation or legal proceeding or remedy in respect of any such right, privilege, obligation, liability, penalty,
