

RULES OF PROCEDURE AND CONDUCT OF BUSINESS IN THE
KARNATAKA LEGISLATIVE COUNCIL

(Framed under Article 208 (i) of the Constitution of India)

Karnataka Legislative Council Secretariat
Vidhana Soudha, Bangalore

PREFACE

Article 208(i) of the Constitution empowers State Legislatures to make rules for regulating its procedure and Conduct of its Business. Under this provision of the Constitution, Karnataka Legislative Council adopted rules for regulating its procedure and the Conduct of its Business.

The text of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Karnataka Legislative Council has been updated in the edition by incorporating the amendments adopted by the House based on the recommendations of the Rules Committee to rules numbers (7), (8), 13, 25, 28, 31, 37, 39, 49, 51, 56, 68, 103, 127, 135, 138, 153, 154, 155, 169, 178, 179, 206, 210, 216, 217, 229, 238, 245, 255, 256, 265, 283, 286.

During the conference of President Officers held during the year 1975 unanimous resolutions were adopted for introducing the Subject Committee system with a view to oversee the activities of the Government Departments so as to ensure their accountability to the legislature, Subject Committee system was introduced in Kerala Legislative Assembly for the first time in the Country during 1980. Later on such subject Committees were also constituted in West Bengal Legislature during 1989. Taking into consideration the report of Thamba Durai Committee, the Functioning of subject Committees in Kerala Legislature and West Bengal, the Parliament also constituted Departmentally Related Subject Committees during the year 1990.

The Rules Committee of Karnataka Legislative Council examined the question of Constitution of Subject Committees in Karnataka Legislature and the Suggestions made by the Hon'ble Speaker, Legislative Assembly and Hon'ble Chairman, Legislative Council after their deliberations with Hon'ble Speaker, Lok Sabha, Officers of Lok Sabha and Rajya Sabha and Hon'ble Speaker of Kerala and West Bengal Legislative Assemblies. The Rules Committee finally recommended for constituting Departmentally related Standing Committees to be called as "Subject Committees."

The Rules Committee also recommended for constitution of a new committee called the "Committee on Welfare of Women and Children."

The Rules of Procedure have been amended accordingly to give effect to the recommendations of the rules committee in respect of constitution of Subject Committees, Committee on Welfare of Women and Children and other modifications to the rules w.e.f., 07 April 1994.

Rules 274 to 285 relating to the departmentally related to subject Committees were deleted vide Notification No. LGC/742/ARC/98 dated 27.03.1998.

Since there were certain shortcomings in the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Karnataka Legislative Council the Rules Committee was reconstituted on 10.11.1998 as per the motion moved by the Hon'ble Member for Law and Parliamentary Affairs on 09.11.1998 in the House in order to carefully review them and submit a report with the suitable amendments. The said committee had constituted a sub committee on 09.12.1998 which submitted its report to the Main Committee on 16.06.2000.

The Subject Committees were again constituted in the year 2001 vide notification No. LGC/1129/LGA/2001, dated 31.03.2001, and deleted in the year 2005 vide notification No. LGC/ 36/RC/2005, dated 26.07.2005.

Later, the Rules Committee reconstituted on 18.06.2004, after duly discussing with the Hon'ble Chairman and Hon'ble Speaker of the Rajya Sabha and Lok Sabha, the Hon'ble leader of Opposition and the Secretary General has made amendments to rules regarding the recognition of House Leader and the Leader of Opposition and the Quorum required for House, extension of the tenure of the Committees from one year to two years and made recommendations for insertion of new rules 10(A), 242(B), 242(C) and 330(A) in the year 2006. In addition to above it has made Recommendations to delete certain rules which were recurring.

With a view to effectively implement the recommendations made by the Rules Committee certain amendments have been made to the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Karnataka Legislative Council with effect from 28.02.2006.

Joint Rules Committee was constituted on 22.08.2016 with respect to maintain uniformity in Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Karnataka Legislative Council and the Karnataka Legislative Assembly. The said Committee was constituted a sub-Committee on 31.08.2016 to review and suggest necessary amendments to the rules of both the Houses. The said Committee has reviewed the Rules of Procedure of both the Houses and Joint Rules Committee has examined and accepted the given Interim Report on 16.11.2016. The said Interim Report has been laid before the Legislative Council on 21.11.2016. The Legislative Council has given its consent after review on 21.02.2018. The Committee has recommended to define about the words 'Lobby of Legislative Council', 'Sittings' and 'Quorum of the House' and to amend Rule-12 and to insert Rule-35,37(a) and Rule-58(a)(b)(c) and (d) in connection with 'Zero Hour' under chapter 7(a) and to amend the Rule-59 and Rule-63.

The Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Karnataka Legislative Council including amendment/insertion has been enforced and reprinted with effect from 21.02.2018.

or a part thereof, when in his opinion it is an abuse of the right of questioning or calculated to obstruct or prejudicially affect the procedure of the Council or is in contravention of these rules.

(2) Subject to the provisions of rule 40, the Chairman may direct that a question be placed on the list of questions for answer on a date later than that specified by a member in his notice, if he is of the opinion that a longer period is necessary to decide whether the question is or is not admissible.

46. Chairman to decide if a question is to be treated as starred or un-starred:- If in the opinion of the Chairman, any question put down for oral answer is of such a nature that written reply would be more appropriate, the Chairman may direct that such question be placed on the list of questions for written answers:

Provided that the Chairman may, if he thinks fit, call upon the member who has given notice of a question for oral answer to state in brief his reasons for desiring an oral answer and, after considering the same, may direct that the question be included in the list of questions for written answer.

47. List of questions:- Questions which have not been disallowed shall be entered in the list of questions for the day for oral or written answer, as the case may be, in accordance with the orders of the Chairman.

48. Orders in which questions shall be called:- Questions for oral answer shall be called, if the time made available for questions permits, in the order in which they stand in the list before any other business is entered upon at the meeting:

Provided that a question not reached for oral answer may be answered after the end of the question hour with the permission of the Chairman, if the minister represents to the Chairman that the question is one of special public interest to which he desires to give a reply.

* Substituted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

49. Withdrawal or postponement of questions:- A member may, by notice given at any time before the meeting for which his question has been placed on the list, withdraw his question or postpone it to a later day to be specified in the notice, and on such later day the question shall, subject to notice and as per the provisions of rule 40, be placed on the list after all questions which have not been so postponed:

Provided that a postponed question shall not be placed on the list until two clear days have expired from the time when the notice of postponement has been received by the Secretary.

50. Mode of asking questions:- (1) When the time for asking questions arrives, the Chairman shall call successively each member in whose names a question appears on the list of questions.

(2) The member, so called shall rise in his place and unless he states that it is not his intention to ask the question standing in his name, he shall ask the question by reference its number in the list of questions.

*(3) If on a question being called, if it is not put or the member in whose name it stands is absent, the Chairman, at the request of any member may direct that the answer to it be given or permit a member to ask the question standing in the name of another member if he is so authorised.

*(4) No discussion shall be permitted during the Question hour. However, the Chairman, at his discretion may permit the supplementary question to be asked for the purpose of elucidating any matter of fact regarding which an answer has been given.

*51. Deleted.

*52. Deleted.

* Substituted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

 Deleted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

53. Answer not to refer to proceedings in the House:- An answer to a question in the Council shall not refer to the answer to a question or proceedings in the House during a current session.

*54. Deleted.

*55. Deleted.

56. Notice relating to short notice Questions:- (1) A question relating to a matter of public importance may be asked, briefly stating the reason for asking the question with notice shorter than ten clear days and if the chairman is satisfied that the question relates to an urgent matter, he may direct that an enquiry be made from the Minister concerned if he is in a position to reply & if so on what date.

(2) if the minister concerned is in a position to reply, such question shall be answered on a day to be indicated by him and at the time to be determined by the Chairman.

(3) if the Minister is not in a position to answer the question at short notice and the Chairman is of opinion that the question is of sufficient public importance to be orally answered in the Council, he may direct that the question be placed as the first question on the list of questions for the day which it would be due for answer under rule 35.

(4) Where a notice of a short notice question is signed by more than one member, it shall be deemed to have been given by the first signatory only.

(5) Where two or more members give notice of question on the same subject and one of the question is accepted for answer at short notice, names of not more than four members, other than the one whose notice has been admitted, as determined by ballot, shall be shown against the admitted question;

Provided that the Chairman may direct that all the notices be consolidated into a single notice, if in his opinion it is desirable to have single self contained question covering all the important points raised by members, and the Minister shall then give his reply to the consolidated question;

Provided further that in the case of a consolidated question, names of not more than four members, other than the one whose notice has been admitted, as determined by ballot, shall be shown against the question.

* Inserted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

 Deleted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

(6) In other respects, the procedure for short notice questions shall be the same as for ordinary questions for oral answer with such modifications as the Chairman may consider necessary or convenient.

(7) The member who has given notice of the question shall be in his seat to ask the question by reference to its number on the list of questions when called by the Chairman and the Minister concerned shall give a reply immediately;

Provided that when a question is shown in the name of more than one member, the Chairman shall call the name of the first member or, in his absence, any other name.

(8) In other respects, the procedure for short notice questions shall be the same as for ordinary questions for oral answer with such modifications as the Chairman may consider necessary or convenient.

57. No publicity of answers to questions in advance:- Answer to questions which Ministers propose to give in the Council shall not be released for publication until the answers have actually been given on the floor of the Council or laid on the Table.

Half-an-hour Discussion

58. Discussion on a matter of public importance arising out of answers to questions:- (1) The Chairman may allot half- an-hour on two days in a week, namely, Tuesday and Thursday at the conclusion of the business of the day, for raising discussion on a matter of sufficient public importance which has been the subject of a recent question in the Council, irrespective of the fact whether it was answered on the floor of the Council or the answer to it has been laid on the Table of the Council and the answer to which needs elucidation on a matter of fact:

Provided that the Chairman may allot any day instead of Tuesday and Thursday if such a course is in his opinion necessary or convenient.

* Substituted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

(2) A member wishing to raise matter shall give notice in writing to the Secretary three days in advance of the day on which the matter is desired to be raised, and shall shortly specify the point or points that he wishes to raise:

Provided that the notice shall be accompanied by an explanatory note stating the reasons for raising discussion on the matter in question:

Provided further that the Chairman may, with the consent of the Minister concerned, waive the requirement concerning the period of notice.

(3) The Chairman shall decide whether the matter is of sufficient public importance to be put down for discussion and the notice shall be taken in the order of receipt in the office.

(4) There shall be no formal motion before the Council nor voting. The member who has given notice may make a short statement and the Minister concerned shall reply briefly. Any member who has previously intimated to the Chairman may be permitted to ask a question for the purpose of further elucidating any matter of fact.

CHAPTER - VIIA

ZERO HOUR

58(A). Immediately after question Hour and Laying of the papers and before the list of business of the day is entered upon, any member who wishes to raise any matter of urgent public importance that has occurred between the adjournment of the previous day sitting and before the commencement of the next sitting and which cannot be raised under any other provisions of the rules of Procedure and conduct of business, can do so, with the previous permission of the Chairman.

58 (b). Time for giving notice:- Notice of Zero Hour shall not exceed 150 words and shall be in writing given in person by the member or through his representative to the Chairman or to his Office. The office shall be given one Hour before the commencement of the sitting on the day on which to be proposed to be raised.

Provided that a member shall not give more than one notice in a day.

Provided further but not more than ten notices shall be allowed to be raised in a days sitting on which five shall be on the basis of point of time of their respect and five shall be on the discretion of the Chairman.

58(c). Time limit for speeches:- No speech on a Zero Hour Notice, shall, except with the permission of the Chairman, exceed 3 minutes in duration.

58 (d). Reply by the Government:- Reply to issues raised in Zero Hour shall as far as possible be given immediately after submission by the member or within two days.

* submitted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 21.02.2018

CHAPTER - VIII

Motion for Adjournment on a Matter of Urgent Public Importance

59. Chairman's consent necessary to make motion:- Subject to the provisions of these rules, a motion for an adjournment of the business of the House for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance only when there is failure on the part of Government to perform the duties enjoined by the Constitution and the Law shall be made with the consent of the Chairman after Question Hour and Zero Hour.

60. Method of giving notice:- Notice of an adjournment motion shall be given one hour before the commencement of the sitting on the day on which the motion is proposed to be made to the Secretary and copies thereof shall be endorsed to:

- (i) Chairman
- (ii) Leader of the House
- (iii) The Minister concerned
- (iv) Parliamentary Affairs Minister

61. Restrictions on right to make motion:- The right to move the adjournment of the Council for the purpose of discussing a definite matter of urgent public importance shall be subject to the following restrictions, namely,-

- (i) not more than one such motion shall be made at the same sitting;
- (ii) not more than one matter shall be discussed on the same motion;
- (iii) the motion shall be restricted to a specific matter of recent occurrence;
- (iv) the motion shall not raise a question of privilege;
- (v) the motion shall not revise discussion on a matter which has been discussed in the same session;
- (vi) the motion shall not anticipate a matter which has been previously appointed for consideration. In determining whether a discussion is out of order on the ground of anticipation, regard shall be had by the Chairman to the probability of the matter anticipated being brought before the Council within a reasonable time;
- (vii) the motion shall not deal with any matter which is under adjudication by a Court of Law having jurisdiction in any part of India; and
- (viii) the motion shall not raise any question which under the Constitution or these rules can only be raised on a distinct motion by a notice given in writing to the Secretary.

* submitted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 21.02.2018

62. Motion for discussion on matters before Tribunals, Commission, etc:- No motion which seeks to raise discussion on a matter pending before any statutory tribunal or statutory authority performing any judicial or quasi judicial functions or any commission or court of enquiry appointed to enquire into or investigate any matter shall ordinarily be permitted to be moved:

Provided that the Chairman may in his discretion, allow such matter being raised in the Council as is concerned with the procedure or subject or stage of enquiry if the Chairman is satisfied that it is not likely to prejudice the consideration of such matter by the statutory tribunal, statutory authority, commission or court of enquiry.

63. Mode of asking for leave to move adjournment motion:- (1) The Chairman, if he gives consent under rule 59 and holds that the matter proposed to be discussed is in order, shall after the Questions and Zero Hour and before the list of business is entered upon call the member concerned who shall rise in his place and ask for leave to move the adjournment motion in the House.

Provided that where the Chairman has refused his consent under rule 59 or is of opinion that the matter proposed to be discussed is not in order, he may, if he thinks it necessary, read the notice of motion and state the reasons for refusing consent or holding the motion as not being in order.

(2) If objection to leave being granted is taken, the Chairman shall request those members who are in favour of leave being granted to rise in their places, and if not less than ten members rise accordingly, the Chairman shall intimate that leave is granted. If less than ten members rise, the Chairman shall inform the members that he has not grant the leave of the Council.

64. Time for taking up motion:- The motion shall be taken up one hour before the time appointed for the conclusion of the business of the day or if the Chairman, after consultation with the Leader of the House, so directs at any earlier hour at which the business of the day may terminate.

65. Limitation of time of discussion:- The debate on a motion to discuss a matter of urgent public importance if not earlier concluded shall automatically terminate at the end of two hours after the commencement of the debate and thereafter no question shall be put.

66. Question to be put at the end of debate:- On a motion to adjourn for the purpose of discussing a matter of urgent public importance the only question that may be put shall be "That the Council do now adjourn".

67. Time limit for speeches and regulation of discussion:- No speech during the debate shall, except with the permission of the Chairman, exceed fifteen minutes in duration: Provided that the mover with the permission of the Chairman, may speak for half-an-hour.

CHAPTER - IX

Discussion on Matters of Urgent Public Importance for short Duration

68. Notice of raising discussion:- Any member desires of raising discussion on a matter of urgent public importance, may give notice in writing to the Secretary specifying clearly and precisely the matter to be raised.

Provided that the notice shall be accompanied by an explanatory note stating reasons for raising a discussion on the matter in question.

Provided further that the notice shall be supported by signature of at least two other members.

69. Chairman to decide admissibility and allotment of time:-

(1) If the Chairman is satisfied, after calling for such information from the member who had given notice and from the Minister, as he may consider necessary, that the matter is urgent and is of sufficient importance to be raised in the House at an early date, he may admit the notice and in consultation with the Leader of the House, fix the date on which such matter may be taken up for discussion and allow such time for discussion not exceeding one hour as he may consider appropriate in the circumstances:

Provided that if an early opportunity is otherwise available for the discussion of the matter, the Chairman may refuse to admit the notice.

(2) The Chairman may allot two sittings in a week on which such matters may be taken up for discussion and allow such time for discussion not exceeding one hour at or before the end of the sitting, as he may consider appropriate in the circumstances.

70. No formal motion:- There shall be no formal motion before the council nor voting. The member who has given notice may make a short statement and the Minister shall reply shortly. Any member who has previously intimated to the Chairman may be permitted to take part in the discussion.

71. Time limit for speeches:- The Chairman may, if he thinks fit, prescribe a time limit for the speeches.

CHAPTER – X

Calling Attention to Matters of Urgent Public Importance

72. Procedure regarding Calling attention to matters of urgent public importance:-

(1) A member may, with the previous permission of the Chairman, call the attention of a Minister to any matter of urgent public importance and the Minister may make a brief statement or ask for time to make a statement at a later hour or date:

*Provided that no Member shall give more than five such notice at any one sitting.

(2) There shall be no debate on such statement at the time it is made, but each member in whose name the item stands in the list of business may, with the permission of the Chairman, ask a clarification:

Provided that the list of business shall not show the name of more than five members.

Explanations:- (a) Where a notice is signed by more than one member, it shall be deemed to have been given by the first signatory only.

(b) Notices for a sitting received at least one hour before the commencement of the sitting on that day and a ballot shall be held to determine the relative priority of each such notice on the same subject. Notices received after one hour shall be deemed to have been given for the next sitting.

*(3) Not more than five such matters shall be raised at the same sitting:

* Substituted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

Provided that the second matter shall not be raised by the same member who have raised the first matter and it shall be raised at or immediately before the end of the sitting, as the Chairman may fix.

(4) In the event of more than one matter being presented for the same day, priority shall be given to such matters which are in the opinion of the Chairman, more urgent and important.

(5) All the notices which have not been taken up during the week for which they have been given shall lapse at the end of the week unless the Chairman has admitted any of them for a subsequent sitting :

Provided that a notice referred to a Minister for facts shall not lapse till it is finally disposed of by the Chairman.

CHAPTER - XI

Legislation

Section I - Bills Originating in the Council.

(a) Introduction and Publication of Bills.

73. Publication before Introduction:- The Chairman may, on request being made to him, order the publication of any bill (together with the Statement of objects and reasons, memorandum regarding delegation of legislative power and the financial memorandum accompanying it) in the Gazette, although no motion has been made for leave to introduce the Bill. In that case, it shall not be necessary to move for leave to introduce the Bill, and, if the Bill is afterwards introduced, it shall not be necessary to publish it again.

74. Notice of motion for leave to introduce Bills:- (1) Any member other than a Minister desiring to move for leave to introduce a Bill shall give notice of his intention, and shall together with notice, submit a copy of the Bill and an explanatory statement of objects and reasons which shall not contain arguments:

Provided that the Chairman may, if the statement of objects and reasons contains arguments or other matter which, in his view are not relevant to the purposes of the Bill, he may cause such statement of objects and reasons to be suitably revised.

(2) If the Bill is a Bill which under the Constitution cannot be introduced without previous sanction or recommendation of the president, the member shall annex to the notice a copy of such sanction or recommendation and the notice shall not be valid until this requirement is complied with.

(3) The period of notice of a motion for leave to introduce a Bill under this rule shall be seven clear days before the commencement of the session of which the member desires to move for leave to introduce the Bill, unless the Chairman allows the motion to be made at shorter notice.

(4) The day on which the motion for leave to introduce a Bill set down in the list of business, the member giving notice may move for leave to introduce the Bill.

75. Financial memorandum and clauses involving expenditure:- (1) A Bill involving expenditure shall be accompanied by a financial memorandum which shall invite particular attention to the clauses involving expenditure and shall also give an estimate of the recurring and non-recurring expenditure involved in case the Bill is passed into law.

(2) Clauses or provisions in Bill involving expenditure from consolidated fund shall be printed in thick type or in italics:

Provided that where a clause in a Bill involving expenditure is not printed in thick type or in italics, the Chairman may permit the member in-charge of the Bill to bring such clauses to the notice of the Council.

76. Explanatory memorandum to Bills delegating legislative power:- A Bill involving proposals for the delegation of legislative power shall further be accompanied by a memorandum explaining such proposal and drawing attention to their scope and stating also whether they are of normal or exceptional character.

77. Statement in connection with ordinance:- (1) When ever a Bill seeking to replace an Ordinance with or without modification is introduced in the Council shall be placed before the Council along with the Bill a statement explaining the circumstances which necessitated immediate legislation by Ordinance.

(2) Whenever an Ordinance which embodies wholly or partly or with modification the provisions of a Bill pending before the Council is promulgated, a statement explaining the circumstances which necessitated immediate legislation by Ordinance shall be laid on the Table at the commencement of the session following the promulgation of the Ordinance.

* Substituted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

78. Motion for leave to introduce:- (1) On the motion for leave to introduce a Bill, the mover may make a brief explanatory statement. If the motion is opposed, the Chairman may permit a brief explanatory statement from the member who opposes and a brief reply from the mover, and shall, then without further debate, put the question therein:

Provided that where a motion is opposed on the ground that the Bill initiates legislation outside the legislative competence of the House, the Chairman may permit a full discussion thereon. (2) If leave to introduce the Bill is granted, the mover shall forthwith introduce the Bill.

(3) When a Bill has been published under the provisions of rule 73, it shall not be necessary to move for leave to introduce the Bill and the Bill may be introduced by the member-in-charge on any subsequent day available for business of that kind.

79. Publication after introduction:- As soon as may be after a Bill has been introduced, the Bill, unless it has already been published, shall be published in the Gazette.

80. Translation of Bills:- After a bill has been introduced or in the case of a Bill published under rule 73, the Bill and the Statement of objects and reasons shall be prepared and presented both in Kannada and English and they shall be published in the Gazette.

(b) Motions after introduction of Bills

* Substituted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

81. Motions after introduction:- When a Bill is introduced or on some subsequent occasion, the member-in-charge may make one of the following motions in regard to his Bill, namely:-

(i) that it be taken into consideration; or

(ii) that it be referred to a Select Committee of the House;

or

(iii) that it be referred to a Joint Select Committee of the House with the concurrence of the Assembly; or

(iv) that it be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon:

Provided that no such motion as is referred to in clause (iii) shall be made with reference to a Bill making provision for any of the matters specified in sub-clause (a) to (f) of clause (I) of article 199 of the Constitution:

Provided further that no such motion shall be made until after copies of the Bill have been made available for the use of members, and that any member may object to any such motion being made unless copies of the Bill have been so made available for two days before the day on which the motion is made and such objection prevail, unless the Chairman allows the motion to be made.

82. Discussion on principles of Bill:- (1) On a motion referred to in rule 78 being made, the principle of the Bill and its provisions may be discussed generally, but the details of the Bill shall not be discussed further than is necessary to explain its principles.

(2) At this stage no amendments to the Bill may be moved, but,- (a) if the member-in-charge moves that the Bill be taken into consideration, any member may move as an amendment that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee of the House or a Joint Select Committee of the Houses with the concurrence of the Assembly, or be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon by a date to be specified in the motion;

(b) if the member-in-charge moves that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee of the House or a Joint Select Committee of the Houses with the concurrence of the Assembly, any member may move as an amendment that the Bill be referred to a Joint Select Committee of the Houses with the concurrence of the Assembly or a Select Committee, as the case may be, or that the Bill be circulated for the purposes of eliciting opinion thereon by a date to be specified in the motion.

(3) Where a motion that a Bill be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon is carried and the Bill is circulated in accordance with that direction and opinions are received thereon, the member-in-charge, if he wishes to proceed with the Bill thereafter, shall move that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee of the House or a Joint Select Committee of the Houses with the concurrence of the Assembly, unless the Chairman allows a motion to be made that the Bill be taken into consideration:

Provided that if an amendment or a motion for appointment of a Select Committee or a Joint Select Committee has been moved under this rule, any member may move that the House give instructions to the Select Committee or to the Joint Select Committee to which the Bill is proposed to be referred to make some particular or additional provision in the Bill and if necessary or convenient to consider and report on amendments which may be proposed to the original Act which the Bill seeks to amend: Provided further that no amendment or a motion for appointment of a Joint Select Committee under this rule shall be moved with reference to a Bill making provision for any of the matters specified in sub-clause (a) to (f) of clause (4) of article 199 of the Constitution.

83. Motion for reference to Select or Joint Select Committee and effect of it:-

(1) When a motion that a Bill be taken into consideration by the Council is passed, the member in-charge or any other member may move that the Bill be referred to a Select or Joint Select Committee.

(2) If a motion that the Bill be referred to a Select or Joint Select Committee is negatived or if no such motion is made, Chairman may proceed to submit the Bill or any part of the Bill to the Council clause by clause under rule 92.

(3) Where a motion that a Bill be circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon is passed, and the Bill is circulated in accordance with the direction and opinion are received thereon, the member in charge if he wishes to proceed with his Bill thereafter, shall move that the Bill be taken into consideration by the Council and if such a motion is carried, the member shall further move that the Bill be referred to a Select Committee unless the Chairman allows this rule:

Provided that no such motion shall be made until copies of the Bill have been made available to the Members and any member may object to any such motion being made unless copies of the Bill have not been so made available for two days before the day on which the motion is made and such objection shall not prevail, unless the Chairman allows the motion to be made.

84. Persons by whom motion in respect of Bills may be made:- (1) No motion that a Bill be taken into consideration or be passed shall be made by any member other than the member-in-charge of the Bill and no motion that a Bill be circulated or recirculated for the purpose of eliciting opinion thereon shall be made by any member other than the member -in-charge except by way of amendment to a motion made by the member-in-charge:

Provided that if the member-in-charge of a Bill is unable for reasons which the Chairman considers adequate, to move the next motion in regard to his Bill at any subsequent stage after introduction, he may authorise another member to move that particular motion with the approval of the Chairman.

Explanation:- Notwithstanding the provisions contained in the proviso the member who introduced the Bill shall continue to be the member-in-charge.

(For rules relating to Select and Joint Select Committee on Bills, see rules 229-242 chapter XXIV of these rules).

(c) Procedure after presentation of Report of a Select or Joint Select Committee

85. Motion that may be moved after presentation of the report of a Select or Joint Select Committee:- (1) After the presentation of the final report of a Select or Joint Select Committee on a Bill, the member -in-charge may move,- (a) that the Bill as reported by the Select or Joint Select Committee be taken into consideration:

Provided that no such motion shall be made until after copies of the report have been made available for the use of members for three days before the day on which the motion is made unless the member-in-charge of the Bill secures leave of the Council to make the motion, such leave being asked for and granted by way of suitable motion or (b) that the Bill as reported by the Select Committee of the House or Joint Select Committee of the Houses, as the case may be, recommitted to the same Select Committee or to a new Select Committee, or to the same Joint Select Committee or to a new Joint Select Committee with the concurrence of the Assembly either-

(i) without limitation; or

(ii) with respect to particular clauses or amendments only; or

(iii) with instructions to the Committee to make some particular or additional provision in the Bill; or

(c) that the Bill as reported by the Select Committee of the House or Joint Select Committee of the Houses, be circulated or recirculated, as the case may be, for the purpose of eliciting opinion or further opinion thereon.

(2) If the member-in-charge moves that the Bill as reported by the Select or Joint Select Committee be taken into consideration, any member may move as an amendment that the Bill be re-committed or be circulated or re-circulated for the purpose of eliciting opinion or further opinion thereon.

86. Scope of debate on report of Select or Joint Select Committee:- The debate on a motion that the Bill as reported by the Select or Joint Select Committee be taken into consideration shall be confined to consideration of the report of the Select or Joint Select Committee and the matters referred to in that report or any alternative suggestions consistent with the principle of the Bill.

(d) Amendment to clauses, etc., and considerations of Bills

87. Submission of the Bill Clause by Clause:- (1) After a motion has been agreed to by the Council that a Bill be taken into consideration, the Chairman shall submit the Bill to the Council clause by clause. (2) Any member may at this stage move an amendment to the Bill.

(3) The Chairman shall have powers to select the new clauses or amendments to be proposed, and may if he thinks fit, call upon any member who has given notice of an amendment to give such explanation of the object of the amendment as may enable him to form a judgement upon it.

(4) Amendment shall be considered in the order of the clauses to which they relate:

Provided that, with the permission of the Chairman amendments may be taken in any other order.

(5) The Chairman shall call the number of each clause separately and when the amendment relating to it have been dealt with, shall put the question that this clause or as the case may be this clause as amended do stand part of the Bill.

(6) Notwithstanding anything contained in sub-rules (1) and (5) of this rule, the Chairman may, in the case of uncontested clauses, put the question on group of clauses and not on each clause separately.

(7) When any clause is under consideration, the discussion shall be continued to that clause and other clauses of the Bill may not be discussed except with the permission of the Chairman.

(8) The schedules, if any, shall be submitted to the Council for its consideration and shall be dealt with in the same manner as the clauses are dealt with.

(9) The title and the preamble of the Bill shall be put to the Council after the clauses of the Bill have been dealt with:

Provided that in order to save time and repetition of arguments a single discussion may be allowed to cover a series of interdependent amendments.

88. Notice of amendment:- (1) If notice of an amendment to a clause or schedule of the Bill has not been given one clear day before the day on which the Bill is to be considered, any member may object to the moving of the amendment and such objection shall prevail unless the Chairman allows the amendment to be moved:

Provided that in the case of a Government Bill an amendment, of which notice has been received from the member- in-charge, shall not lapse by reason of the fact that the member in-charge has ceased to be a Minister or a member and such amendments shall be printed in the name of the new member- in-charge of the Bill.

(2) The Secretary shall if time permits, cause every notice of a proposed amendment to be printed and copy thereof to be made available for the use of every member.

89. Sanction to be annexed to notice of amendment:- If any member desires to move an amendment which under the Constitution cannot be moved without previous sanction or recommendation, he shall annex to the notice of the proposed amendment a copy of such sanction or recommendation and the notice shall not be valid until this requirement is complied with.

90. Conditions of admissibility of amendments:- The following conditions shall govern the admissibility of amendments to clauses or schedules of a Bill,-

(a) An amendment shall be within the scope of the Bill and relevant to the subject matter of the clause to which it relates.

(b) An amendment shall not be inconsistent with any previous decision of the Council on the same question.

(c) An amendment shall not be such as to make the clause which it proposes to amend unintelligible or ungrammatical.

(d) If an amendment refers to, or is not intelligible without, a subsequent amendment or schedule, notice of the subsequent amendment or schedule shall be given before the first amendment is moved so as to make the series of amendments intelligible as a whole.

(e) The Chairman shall determine the order in which an amendment shall be moved.

(f) The Chairman may refuse to propose an amendment which is, in his opinion, frivolous or meaningless.

(g) An amendment may be moved to an amendment which has already been allowed by the Chairman.

91. Power of Chairman to select new clauses or amendments:- The Chairman shall have power to select the new clauses or amendments to be proposed, and may, if he thinks fit, call upon any member who has given notice of an amendment to give such explanation of the object of amendment as may enable him to form a judgement upon it.

92. Arrangement of amendments:- Amendments of which notice has been given shall, as far as practicable, be arranged in the list of amendments issued from time to time in the order in which they may be called. In arranging amendments raising the same question at the same point of a clause, precedence may be given to an amendment to be moved by the member in charge of the Bill. Subject as aforesaid amendments may be arranged in the order in which notice thereof are received.

93. Order of amendments:- (1) Amendments shall ordinarily be considered in the order of the clauses of the Bill to which they respectively relate and in respect of any such clause, a motion shall be deemed to have been made, "That this clause stand part of the Bill".

(2) The Chairman may, if he thinks fit, put as one question similar amendments to a clause:

Provided that if a member request that any amendment be put separately, the Chairman shall put that amendment separately.

94. Withdrawal of amendments:- An amendment moved may, by leave of the Council, but not otherwise, be withdrawn, on the request of the member moving it. If an amendment has been proposed to an amendment, the original amendment, shall not be withdrawn until the amendment proposed to it has been disposed of.

95. Submission of a Bill clause by clause:- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in these rules, the Chairman may, when a motion that a Bill be taken into consideration has been carried, submit the Bill, or any part of the Bill, to the Council clause by clause. The Chairman may call each clause separately and when the amendments relating to it have been dealt with, shall put the question "That this clause or, that this clause as amended as the case may be stand part of the Bill".

(2) When any clause is called by the Chairman, any member may offer his remarks thereon subject to such limitations as the Chairman may consider necessary.

 - (viii) it shall not relate to any matter which is under adjudication by a court of law having jurisdiction in any part of India.
- (2) A motion shall not be inadmissible on the ground that it relates to question of privilege for which consent of the Chairman has not been given under rule 174.

159. Chairman to decide admissibility of a motion:- The Chairman shall decide whether a motion or a part thereof is or is not admissible under these rules and may disallow any motion or a part thereof when in his opinion it is an abuse of the right of moving a motion or calculated to obstruct or prejudicially affect the procedure of the Council or is in contravention of these rules.

160. Matters before Tribunal, Commission etc:- No motion which seeks to raise discussion on a matter pending before any Statutory Tribunal or Statutory Authority performing any judicial or quasi judicial functions or any Commission or Court of Enquiry appointed to enquire into, or investigate any matter shall ordinarily be permitted to be moved:

Provided that the Chairman may, in his discretion, allow such matter being raised in the House as it is concerned with the Procedure or subject or stage of enquiry if the Chairman is satisfied that it is not likely to prejudice the consideration of such matter by the Statutory Tribunal, Statutory Authority, Commissions or Court of Enquiry.

161. Allotment of time and discussions of motions:- The Chairman may, after considering the state of business in the House and consultation with the Leader of the House (or on the recommendation of the Business Advisory Committee), allot a day or days or part of a day for the discussion of any such motion.

162. Chairman to put question at the appointed time:- The Chairman shall at the appointed hour on the allotted day or the last of the allotted days, as the case may be, forthwith put every question necessary to determine the decision of the Council on the original question.

163. Time limit for speeches:- The Chairman may, if he thinks fit, prescribe a time limit for speeches.

CHAPTER - XVIII

Statement by a Minister who has resigned

164. Statement by a Minister who has resigned:- (1) A member who has resigned the office of Minister may, with the consent of the Chairman, make a personal statement in explanation of the resignation.

(2) A copy of the statement shall be forwarded to the Chairman and the Leader of the House one day in advance of the day on which it is proposed to be made:

Provided that in the absence of a written statement, the points or the list of such statement shall be conveyed to the Chairman and Leader of the House one day in advance of the day on which it is proposed to be made.

(3) Such statement shall be made after questions and before list of business for the day is entered upon.

(4) There shall be no debate on such statement but, after it has been made, a Minister may make a statement pertinent thereto.

CHAPTER - XIX

Resolution for removal of Chairman or Deputy Chairman from Office

165. Notice of a resolution for removal of Chairman or Deputy Chairman:- (1) A member wishing to give notice of resolution under clause (c) of article 183 of the Constitution, for the removal of the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman, shall do so in writing to the Secretary.

(2) On receipt of a notice under sub-rule (1), a motion for leave to move the resolution shall be entered in the list of business in the name of the member concerned on a day fixed by the Chairman:

Provided that the day so fixed shall be any day after fourteen days from the date of the receipt of notice.

166. Leave of Council to take up resolution:- (1) The member in whose name the motion stands on the list of business shall except when he wishes to withdraw it, move the motion when called upon to do so, but no speech shall be permitted at this stage.

(2) The Chairman or the Deputy Chairman or the person presiding as the case may be, shall thereupon place the motion before the Council and shall request those members who are in favour of leave being granted to rise in their places. If not less than ten members rise accordingly, the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman or to the person presiding as the case may be, shall declare that leave has been granted and that the resolution will be taken up on such day not being more than five days from the date on which leave is asked for, as he may appoint. If less than ten members rise, the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman or the person presiding shall inform the mover that he has not grant the leave of the Council.

167. Resolution included in the list of business on the appointed day:- On the appointed day, the resolution shall be included in the list of business to be taken up after the questions and before any other business for the day is entered upon.

168. Time limit for speeches:- Except with the permission of the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman or the person presiding, a speech on the resolution shall not exceed fifteen minutes in duration:

Provided that the mover of the resolution when moving the same may speak for such longer time as the Chairman or the Deputy Chairman or the person presiding may permit.

CHAPTER - XX

Procedure in Financial Matters

169. The Budget:- The Annual Financial Statement or the Statement of the Estimated Receipts and Expenditure of the Government in respect of each financial year (hereinafter referred to as the 'Budget') shall be presented to the Council on such day as the Governor may direct.

170. Budget not to be discussed on presentation:- There shall be no discussion of the Budget on the day on which it is presented to the Council.

171. General discussion on the Budget:- (1) On a day or days to be appointed by the Chairman subsequent to the day on which the Budget is presented and for such time as the Chairman may allot for this purpose, the Council shall be at liberty to discuss the Budget as a whole or any question of principle involved therein, but no motion shall be moved nor shall it be submitted to the vote of the Council.

(2) The Finance Minister shall have a general right of reply at the end of the discussion.

(3) The Chairman may, if he thinks fit, prescribe time limit for speeches.

172. Presentation of the Budget in parts:- Nothing herein before contained shall be deemed to prevent the presentation of the Budget to the Council in two or more parts and when such presentation takes place, each part shall be dealt with in accordance with these rules as if it were the Budget.

173. Statement of Supplementary or additional expenditure:- The Chairman shall allot such time as may be necessary for the discussion of supplementary or additional estimates of the Expenditure. No motion shall be moved on such estimates nor shall it be submitted to the vote of the Council.

(For rules relating to Committee on Public Accounts see rules 245 to 247 of Chapter XXIV).

CHAPTER - XXI

Privileges

(a) Question of Privilege

174. Question of privilege:- A member may, with the consent of the Chairman, raise a breach of privilege either of a member or of the Council or of a Committees thereof.

175. Notice of question of privilege:- A member wishing to raise a question of privileges shall give notices in writing to the Secretary at least one hour before the commencement of the sitting on the day the question is proposed to be raised. If the question raised is based on a document, the notice shall be accompanied by the document.

176. Condition of admissibility of question of privilege:- The right to raise a question of privilege shall be governed by the following conditions, namely,-

- (i) not more than one question shall be raised at the same sitting;
- (ii) the question shall be restricted to a specific matter of recent occurrence;
- (iii) the matter requires the intervention of the Council.

177. Mode of raising a question of privilege:- (1) The Chairman, if he gives consent under rule 174 and holds that the matter proposed to be discussed is in order, shall, after the questions and before the list of business is entered upon, call the member concerned, who shall rise in his place and while asking for leave to raise the question of privilege make a short statement relevant thereto:

Provided that where the Chairman has refused his consent under rule 174 or is of opinion that the matter proposed to be discussed is not in order, he may, if he thinks it necessary, read the notice of question of privilege and state that he refuses consent or holds that the notice of question of privilege is not in order:

CHAPTER - XXV

General Rules of Procedure

Notices

286. Notice by Members:- (1) Every notice required by these rules shall be given in writing addressed to the Secretary and may be posted or left at the Notice Office which shall be open for this purpose between the hours of 10.30 a.m. and 3 p.m. one very day except Sunday or on public holiday.

(2) Notices left or delivered by post after the hours notified under sub-rule (1) shall be treated as given on the next working day.

(3) Notices shall be given in such form and manner as the Chairman may determine.

287. Circulation of Notices and papers to members:- (1) The Secretary shall make every effort to circulate to each member a copy of every notice or other paper which is required by these rules, to be made available for the use of members.

(2) A notice or other paper shall be deemed to have been made available for the use of every member if a copy thereof is deposited in such manner and in such place as the Chairman may from time to time direct

288. Chairman to amend notice of questions and motions, etc:- If in the opinion of the Chairman, any notice contains words, phrases or expressions which are argumentative, unparliamentary, ironical, irrelevant, verbose or otherwise inappropriate, he may, in his discretion amend such notice before it is circulated.

Motions

289. Repetition of Motion:- A motion must not raise a question substantially identical with one on which the Council has given a decision in the same session.

290. Disallowance or amendment by Chairman:- (1) The Chairman may amend or disallow a motion which in his opinion does not comply with the rules.

(2) The Chairman may disallow any motion or part of a motion on the ground that it relates to a matter which is not primarily the concern of the State Government.

(3) The Motion which is not admitted by the Chairman shall not be included in the List of Business of the day or the business transacted in this regarding shall not be included in the printed official report

291. Motions not to be published until admitted:- No motion shall be published before it has been admitted by the Chairman.

292. Moving of motion:- (1) A member who has given notice of a motion shall, when called on, either,-

(a) state that he does not wish to move the motion or

(b) move the motion, and shall commence his speech by a formal motion in the terms appearing on the list of business:

Provided that with the permission of the Chairman he may make a minor or verbal alteration in the terms of the motion.

*(2) If the member when called is absent, any other member authorised by him in writing on his behalf may, with the permission of the Chairman, move the motion standing in his name. Such permission shall not be granted in the case of a statutory motion or motions relating to Bills, amendments to Bills, or amendments to these rules. If no member has been so authorised, or such permission is not granted, the motion other than a motion relating to a Bill to which the provisions of these rules apply, shall lapse.

* Substituted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

293. Withdrawal of motion:- (1) A member who has made a motion may withdraw the same by leave of the Council.

(2) The leave shall be signified not upon question but by the Chairman taking the pleasure of the Council. The Chairman shall ask,

“Is it your pleasure that the motion be withdrawn ?” If no one dissents, the Chairman shall say “The motion is by leave withdrawn”. But if any dissentient voice be heard or a member rises to continue the debate, the Chairman shall forthwith put the motion:

Provided that if an amendment has been proposed to a motion the original motion shall not be withdrawn until the amendment has been disposed of.

294. Proposing the question:- After a motion has been made, the Chairman shall propose the question by reading the motion for the consideration of the Council.

295. Adjournment of debate on motion:- At any time after a motion has been made, a member may move that the debate on the motion be adjourned.

* Inserted as per the recommendation of the Rules Committee on 14.2.06.

(2) A member shall not try to secure business from Government for a firm, company or organisation with which he is directly concerned.

(3) A member shall not give certificates which are not based on facts.

(4) A member shall not make profit out of Government residence allotted to him by sub-letting the premises.

(5) A member shall not unduly influence the Government officials or the Ministers in a case in which he is interested financially either directly or indirectly.

(6) A member shall not receive hospitality of any kind for any work that he desires or proposes to do from a person or an organisation on whose behalf the work is to be done by him.

(7) A member shall, not in his capacity as a lawyer, a legal adviser, a counsel or a solicitor, appear before a Minister or an executive officer exercising quasi judicial powers.

(8) A member shall not proceed to take action on behalf of his constituents on some insufficient or baseless facts.

(9) A member shall not permit himself to be used as a ready supporter of anybody's grievances or complaints without verifying facts.

(10) A member shall not endorse incorrect certificates on bills claiming amounts due to him.

(11) A member shall not elicit information from Government in an unauthorised manner by inducing a subordinate official to give information which in the course of his normal functions he should not do, nor shall he encourage any such person to speak to him against his senior officials on matters of public importance and policy.

(12) A member shall not write recommendatory letter or speak to Government officials for employment or business contacts for any of relations or other persons in whom he is directly or indirectly interested.

(13) Where a member of a committee of the council or legislature has a personal, pecuniary or direct interest in any matter which is to be considered by the committee, he shall state his interest therein to the Chairman of the Council through the Chairman of the committee.

(14) Since the proceedings of committee are treated as confidential, it is not permissible for a member of the committee or anyone who has access to its proceedings to communicate directly or indirectly to the press any information regarding its proceedings including its report or any conclusions arrived at, finally or tentatively, before the report has been presented to the House.

(15) Whenever a paper or document, marked 'secret' or 'confidential' is circulated to the members of the committee, the contents of such paper or document shall not be divulged by any member either in the minute of dissent or on the floor of the House, or otherwise, without the permission of the Chairman, and where such permission has been obtained, any restriction imposed by the Chairman in regard to the manner in which, or the extent to which the information contained in the document may be divulged, shall be strictly observed.
