K'taka ministers hit out at Maha CM

Bengaluru: RDPR minister KS Eshwarappa said Maharashtra chief minister Uddhav Thackeray has been raking up the border issue as he's losing popularity in his state. "He has been making statements against Karnataka to gain support of Marathi-speaking people. The Mahajan panel report is final when it comes to border issues," he said. In Udupi, deputy CM Laxman Savadi likened the Maha Vikas Aghadi government to soap opera Mane Ondu Mooru Bagiluand. "He is trying to cover up his failures," he said.

BSY: No legal hurdles in Mahadayi issue

Bengaluru: Chief minister BS Yediyurappa said there are no legal hurdles in getting Mahadayi river water for Karnataka and Goa chief minister Pramod Sawant's stand will not come in the way. "There is no problem for us in getting our share as the court's decision is in our favour. We'll deal with Goa leaders through the party platform," Yediyurappa said, reacting to Sawant's statement that he will not buckle under his party's pressure when it comes to Mahadayi issue.
