LS passes bill on teachers' quota

The Lok Sabha passed a bill on Monday that proposes to treat university or college as a single unit, and not individual departments, to provide reservations in recruitment of teachers' posts in central educational institutions. The Central Educational Institutions (Reservation in Teachers' Cadre) Bill 2019, which will allow filling about 8,000 existing vacancies in 41 central universities and provide 10% reservation for economically weaker sections, was introduced to replace an ordinance issued in March this year.
