Parliament adjourned over farm protests

NEW DELHI, DHNS.
The farmers' agitation at Delhi borders reverberated in Parliament on Tuesday with the Opposition stalling the proceedings in both the Houses after its notice to suspend the business and discuss the issue was not accepted.

Rajya Sabha witnessed three adjournments before finally calling it a day at 12.31 pm as Opposition MPs trooped to the Well of the House each time, raising slogans against the Narendra Modi government and demanding discussion.

Lok Sabha too witnessed noisy scenes with MPs waving placards and shouting slogans trooped to the Well demanding an immediate discussion. The Lower House was to start the debate on the Motion of Thanks to the President's speech but could not do so as Opposition MPs forced three adjournments, the last at around 7 pm.

Rajya Sabha Chairman M Venkaiah Naidu first adjourned the House till 10.30 am. Similar scenes were witnessed at 11.30 am when the House re-assembled, prompting Deputy Chairman Harivansh to adjourn the House again till 12.30 pm.

The Opposition MPs were in no mood to budge. Harivansh then adjourned the House for the day.

VP appeals for 'purposeful' Budget Session

Rajya Sabha Chairman M Venkaiah Naidu on Tuesday appealed to MPs to make the Budget Session "more purposeful" by discussing issues "threadbare in an orderly and dignified manner" and not repeat "unfortunate incidents" that took place in the previous session.
