MLA offers site
to WWII widow

Following a TOI report, Haveri MLA Nehru Olekar met 68-year-old Puttamma Churi, widow of a WWII soldier on Tuesday and promised to allot a site and get a house built. Her husband Hanumanappa joined the war when he was 19 years and returned with injuries. 74.

WAR WIDOW TO GET SITE

A day after The Times of India front-paged a report — '68-year-old World War II widow waits for benefits' — Haveri MLA Nehru Olekar visited Puttamma Churi's house on Tuesday and promised to allot a site through the Haveri Urban Development Authority. A house will be built by the government and a park will be named after Hanumanappa Churi. Hanumanappa joined the forces at 19, fought for five years (1940-45) and returned home with injuries. "The BJP government never forgets the contribution of a soldier," the MLA said.
