'Big explosion' if CM is not changed: Yatnal

He tells Arun Singh to stop praising BSY

SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

Basanagouda Patil Yatnal, Vijayapura MLA, has said that there will be a "big explosion" in the State if Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa is not removed before May 2.

Reacting to RDPR Minister K.S. Eshwarappa writing to the Governor complaining against the alleged "interference" by the Chief Minister, Mr. Yatnal said it was bound to happen. "Mr. Eshwarappa suffered silently all these days and now he has been forced to go to the Governor," Mr. Yatnal said.

"Many leaders are angry with the Chief Minister and Mr. Eshwarappa has expressed it. If the party high command lets him continue him as Chief Minister, a bigger explosion will follow," he said, adding he would advise Arun Singh, party general secretary, to stop praising Mr. Yediyurappa during his visits to Karnataka.

'Illegal deals'

He alleged that the Chief Minister's family was conducting illegal deals of various departments sitting in Kaveri, the CM's home office. "It seems the Chief Minister and his son are keen to take over the complete government."
