Arun Singh to broker peace between CM and KSE

STAFF REPORTER
BENGALURU

Arun Singh, in-charge of BJP affairs in the State, is scheduled to arrive in the city on April 8 to broker peace between Chief Minister B.S. Yediyurappa and RDPR Minister K.S. Eshwarappa, who has complained against the Chief Minister to the Governor.

While Mr. Eshwarappa has stuck to his guns, the Chief Minister, who has remained silent on the issue till date, is reportedly very upset with his former close associate.

'Creating hurdles'

The Chief Minister's camp has been firing salvos at the Minister claiming it was Mr. Eshwarappa who was creating hurdles for party MLAs, prompting them to complain to the Chief Minister who only acted on such complaints.

Party sources said the high command has tasked Mr. Singh to broker peace in the party and the Cabinet. "Relations between former close associates Mr. Yediyurappa and Mr. Eshwarappa has significantly broken down to the extent that they do not talk to each other, except when it is inevitable. The problem must have been solved long back, but was allowed to fester," said a senior party strategist.

Meanwhile, BJP State unit president Nalin Kumar Kattel insisted that BJP has a good internal democracy as well as grievance redressal system.

'No question of BSY resigning'

Terming his letter to the Governor an "administrative matter", RDPR Minister K.S. Eshwarappa has said there was no question of B.S. Yediyurappa resigning as Chief Minister.

Reacting to Leader of the Opposition Siddaramaiah's statement on the issue, he said during an interaction with media persons in Shivamogga on Saturday, that Mr. Siddaramaiah was in a hurry to become Chief Minister and that would not happen. The letter, he said, would not make any impact on the bypolls. The party had its base at the booth level and workers had already reached every voter in the constituencies going to polls, he argued.
