Hours after shoes were hurled at Surjya Narayan Patro, Speaker of the Odisha Legislative Assembly, inside the House, three Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) legislators were on Saturday suspended from the ongoing Budget session.

The suspended BJP MLAs are Deputy Leader of the Opposition Bishnu Charan Sethi, BJP chief whip Mohan Charan Majhi, and senior member Jai Narayan Mishra.

Upset over the reported denial of the opportunity to present the party's point of view, BJP MLAs had allegedly thrown shoes and dustbins at Mr. Patro.

As soon as the House resumed in the afternoon, the Speaker invited Leader of the Opposition Pradipta Naik, Leader of the Congress Legislature Party Narasingha Mishra, Parliamentary Affairs Minister Bikram Keshari Arukha and the State government's chief whip Pramila Mallick to review in his chamber the video footage for ascertaining who had thrown shoes at the Chair. After a few minutes, Mr. Patro announced the suspension of the three BJP MLAs for the violation of conduct rules.
