I've nothing to do with sleaze CD case: ex-minister Sudhakar

CHITRADURGA, DHNS: Former minister D Sudhakar on Sunday rubbished media reports linking him to sleaze CD purportedly featuring BJP MLA Ramesh Jarkiholi, saying that he'd nothing to with the scandal, that has raised a political storm in the state.

Speaking to reporters in Challakere in the district, Sudhakar said, "I am shocked to see my name being dragged into the scandal. I have never transferred money to the woman (allegedly involved in the CD). I will cooperate with the probe if I receive summons from the agency. I am not afraid to speak the truth."

"I get hundreds of calls daily as I was an MLA and a minister. It is tough to recognize the identity of the callers. I have not contacted anyone personally. Since I am in good terms with CLP leader Siddaramaiah and KPCC president D K Shivakumar, it is wrong to fix me in the case," the three-time MLA from Challakere, said.
