BSY splits up Covid duties to pacify senior ministers

TIMES NEWS NETWORK

Bengaluru: Faced with a bunch of restive ministers, chief minister BS Yediyurappa on Saturday mollified them by giving them different responsibilities in Covid-19 management.

Revenue minister R Ashoka, who was miffed after being detached from the team, has been entrusted with handling private hospitals along with CM's political secretary SR Vishwanath. Ashoka had recently stood in for medical education minister K Sudhakar for a week when the latter was in home quarantine.

Deputy chief minister CN Ashwath Narayan, who was also missing in action for some time, will now oversee Covid Care Centres (CCC). These decisions were taken at the task force meeting chaired by Yediyurappa on Saturday.
