The Haryana police on Wednesday arrested four members of the Bharatiya Kisan Union (BKU) under various provisions of the IPC, including attempt to murder, rioting, unlawful assembly and wrongful restraint, for the alleged attack on the vehicle of Kurukshetra MP Nayab Singh during a protest on Tuesday. The farmers held a sit-in outside the Shahbad police station in Kurukshetra in protest against the arrests. Mr. Singh had gone to Maj-ri Mohalla for a personal visit on Tuesday, when BKU members began protesting outside the house he was visiting. After he came out and entered his car, they surrounded the vehicle, raised slogans and showed black flags. Some tried to pull him out, while others sat on the bonnet. They also smashed the rear windscreen.

While 11 people have been named in the FIR, eight to 10 are unidentified. The police said they had a video of the incident clearing showing what had happened.
