Yatnal needs to be shown the door: Singh

BELAGAVI: BJP state in-charge Arun Singh on Friday said party legislator Basanagouda Patil Yatnal had refused to mend his ways and deserved to be shown the door.

Yatnal continued to target Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa despite being slapped with a notice from the disciplinary committee of the party.

Singh told reporters here that he would not comment on Yatnal as it would give him undue publicity. "The party has zero faith on Yatnal. The disciplinary committee should take a stern action against him. Since, it is internal matters of the party, I would not comment on it anymore," he said.

When asked about Yatnal's leadership change comment, Singh said, "B S Yediyurappa will continue as chief minister. He (Yatnal) is daydreaming."
