Justice Vikram Nath
appointed AP
Chief Justice

11/4/19
THE Supreme Court Collegium has recommended Allahabad High Court Judge Justice Vikram Nath for appointment as Chief Justice of Andhra Pradesh High court. The collegium on Wednesday observed that "the office of the Chief Justice of the Andhra Pradesh High Court, which has recently been constituted as separate High Court for the State of AP, has been lying vacant right from the day of its inception. Therefore, appointment to that office is required to be made. Mr Justice Vikram Nath is the senior-most Judge from Allahabad High Court and has been functioning in that High Court since his elevation." The apex court collegium also recommended four other judges for appointment as Chief Justices of Rajasthan, Kerala, Meghalaya and Chhattisgarh High Courts. The decision was taken by the apex court collegium, headed by Chief Justice Ranjan Gogoi and comprising Justices S A Bobde, N V Ramana on April 8 and it was uploaded on the apex court website on Wednesday.
