Budget session in March first week:
Yediyurappa

MYSURU, DHNS: Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa, on Monday, said the Budget session of the legislature would be held in the first week March.

Speaking to reporters at Suttur, Nanjangud taluk, the CM said the financial condition of the state was not good, but he would present a good and farmer-friendly budget.

"I was informed that January 13 afternoon is auspicious and the Cabinet is likely to be expanded or reshuffled on that day. However, the time will be finalised after consulting BJP president J P Nadda," he said.

When asked about the statements by Opposition party leaders that the BJP would change the CM, Yediyurappa said, "Let media and Siddaramaiah decide, when I should step down".
