SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT
BENGALURU 12/1/22

The Karnataka Kisan Congress, farmers' cell of the KPCC, has said that the Supreme Court ruling on suspending implementation of three farm laws of the Centre was unacceptable, and demanded its total repeal.

In a statement to the press, Kisan Congress president Sachin Miga said farmers would continue to protest till the government repeals the three farm laws.

Meanwhile, Karnataka Sugarcane Growers' Association president Kurubur Shantakumar welcomed the Supreme Court ruling on suspending the implementation of three farm laws and termed it "first victory for farmers" who have been agitating for the past 48 days.

However, he opposed the formation of a committee and urged the top court to reconsider its decision.
