Bengaluru: In a setback for the ruling BJP, the one-day session of the legislative council is likely to be a short one as chairman Pratap Chandra Shetty has rejected the notice of no-confidence motion.

Citing the chairman's explanation as "unsatisfactory", BJP has sent a letter to his office. "The chairman needs to explain his reasons for rejecting the no-confidence motion on the floor of the house," said BJP MLC Mahantesh Kavatgimath.

The government has decided to table the anti-cow slaughter bill. The JD(S), which is backing the BJP's efforts to topple Shetty, is said to be keen in referring the controversial legislation to a joint select committee.

"Our intent is simple. In states like Uttar Pradesh, the government there has 1,500 cattlesheds, apart from hundreds of private ones. In Karnataka, there has been no practical explanation given to introduce the law. We are determined to refer the bill to a select committee as it needs to be examined," said JD(S) senior MLC Basavaraj Horrati.

All three political parties have issued whips to their legislators to be present in the house on Tuesday.
