Bengaluru: A former BJP MLA from Lingsugur in Raichur district was nabbed at Kempegowda International Airport (KIA) with 16 live bullets, compatible with a .32mm-caliber pistol, in his handbag. Sleuths from Central Industrial Security Force seized the ammunition and handed him over to Bengaluru police.

Airport sources identified the politician as Manappa D Vajjal, 60, who was to travel to Hyderabad on Wednesday via Air India flight AI 568, scheduled to depart at 1pm from KIA. A CISF team, which was carrying out security checks on passengers and their hand baggage, spotted something unusual when Vajjal's handbag passed through the scanner. Officers soon intercepted the BJP functionary and opened the bag in his presence to find 16 live bullets of a .32mm caliber handgun. Following preliminary probe, the airport security team handed Vajjal over to KIA police for further investigation and legal action, sources added.

In a similar case on Tuesday evening, another CISF team unearthed a single bullet of a .32mm caliber handgun from the wallet of a passeng-

FLYER CAUGHT WITH ₹20 LAKH

A flyer who attempted to board an aircraft to Delhi from KIA on Friday afternoon with Rs 20-lakh cash concealed in his hand luggage was intercepted by a CISF team during security check. Airport sources later identified the passenger as Aizaj Ali, a resident of Amberhai, southwest Delhi, who had booked a ticket on IndiGo flight 6E 2133. The airport security team alerted income tax officials and the cash was seized, sources added.

Kidnappers in touch with kin on WhatsApp

Police said the boy was playing outside his house around 6.30pm when four persons picked him up and sped away in a car even as his grandfather saw the incident from a distance. His mother received a call from unidentified persons, reportedly from Hassan district, demanding 100 bitcoins as ransom.

The abductors are said to be in touch with the boy's family through WhatsApp. Police sources claimed they insisted on digital payment of ransom and added that one person, who is constantly on the move, is said to be behind the incident. The SP said four teams have been fanned out. "It appears the abductors are travelling constantly on highways," he said.
