For how many generations will reservation continue? SC

NEW DELHI: For how many generations would reservations in jobs and education continue, the Supreme Court sought to know during the Maratha quota case hearing on Friday and raised concerns over 'resultant inequality' in case the overall 50 per cent limit was to be removed.

A five-judge Constitution bench headed by Justice Ashok Bhushan was told by advocate Mukul Rohatgi, appearing for Maharashtra, that the Mandal judgment on capping the quota needed a re-look. He said the courts should leave it to states to fix reservation quotas. "If there is no 50 per cent or no limit, what is the concept of equality then. We will ultimately have to deal with it. What is your reflection on that... What about the resultant inequality. How many generations will you continue," observed the bench. ENS
