Kerala plans
special session
to reject
farm laws

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM, DHNS: The CPM-led Left Democratic Front government in Kerala is planning to convene a special session of the state Assembly to move a resolution against the centre's new farm laws.

Government sources said that the special session was proposed for December 23. A final decision on this was expected at the Cabinet meeting on Monday. The resolution is expected to be backed by all members, except BJP's lone MLA O Rajagopal.

The move comes close on the heels of Kerala government deciding to move the Supreme Court against the farm laws. The state government got a legal opinion on certain portions of the law amounting to infringement into the state's powers and scope for filing an appeal.

Kerala Assembly has passed many resolutions against the Union government, including one demanding to scrap of Citizenship Amendment Act and against the decision to award the Thiruvananthapuram International Airport to Adani Enterprises.
