Three-time MF A K Roy dies at 90

BHOPAL (JHARKHAND), 22: Former Lok Sabha MP and founder of Marxist Coordination Committee (MCC) A K Roy died on Sunday at a hospital here following multiple organ failure. Roy (90) was unmarried, party sources said.

The veteran Left leader and the chief patron of CITU Jharkhand state committee was admitted to Central Hospital here on July 8 owing to age-related problems, they said.

Condoling the death of the former Lok Sabha member, Jharkhand Chief Minister Raghubar Das on Sunday accorded him a state funeral. Das said that Roy's "demise has left a deep void" in Jharkhand. Roy's associates referred to him as a 'political saint' who had zero balance in his bank account.
