NEW DELHI, DINES: Former Delhi BJP president Mange Ram Garg died here on Sunday morning.

A former member of the Delhi Assembly, Garg was 83 when he breathed his last at a private hospital here.

President Ram Nath Kovind remembered Garg as a senior politician and a dedicated, grassroots leader in Delhi.

"Leaders like Shri Mange Ram Garg Ji are assets for any party. They work selflessly at the grassroots and touch the lives of several people through various community service initiatives," Prime Minister Narendra Modi said.

Senior BJP leaders L K Advani, Sushma Swaraj, Home Minister and BJP president Amit Shah offered floral tributes to Garg at the Delhi BJP office here. Garg's mortal remains were donated to Dadhi-chi Deh Daan Samiti for study of anatomy as per his wishes.
