8 RS MPs suspended for a week for 'unruly' conduct

Naidu Rejects No-Trust Move Against Dy Chair

TIMES NEWS NETWORK
24/6/20

New Delhi: Eight opposition members of Rajya Sabha were suspended for a week on Monday for "unruly behaviour" during passage of the two farm bills on Sunday, with Chairman M Venkaiah Naidu also rejecting the notice for a no-confidence resolution against deputy chairman Hariyansh.

The eight MPs, including Trinamool leader Derek O'Brien and Sanjay Singh of Aam Aadmi Party, however, continued with their protests and refused to leave the House despite repeated instructions from the chair. It led to multiple adjournments, with the proceedings being washed out without any business being transacted on Monday.

The other MPs are Rajeev Satav, Syed Nasir Hussain and Ripun Bora of Congress, Dola Sen of Trinamool and K K Ragesh and Elamaram Kareem of the CPM. Express

Centre announces increase in MSP for rabi ahead of usual time to allay farmers' fears

The Centre on Monday announced increases in MSP of six rabi crops ranging from 2% to 6% with lentils and mustard getting the highest raise, reports Vishwa Mohan. The announcement, ahead of the usual time, is seen as an attempt by the government to allay doubts of farmers over the future of the support price regime in the wake of the two farm bills. P7 gush. Naidu said, "I pained the Rajya Sabha because what happened during passage of the farm bills was unfortunate. I am not happy about it. I am not happy about the suspension of the eight members."

He said some members, violating all Covid-19 physical distancing norms, came to the hall of the House during the suspension of the Rajya Sabha. He also said, "I am not happy about the suspension of the eight members."

PM: Bills will end rule of 'powerful gangs'

PM Modi denied that the bills would spell the end of MSP regime and said they were meant to end the rule of "powerful gangs" exploiting farmers. P7 while also hurling papers and the rule book at the deputy chairman. "Are these people not independent?" he asked.
