BENGALURU

The 13 rebel Congress and JD(S) legislators have written to Speaker K.R. Ramesh Kumar seeking four weeks' time to appear before him in connection with the disqualification notice served to them. They are also expected to arrive in the city on Wednesday.

Contending that they were yet to receive copies of the disqualification petition, the MLAs said after tendering their resignation they moved the Supreme Court, which directed the Speaker to consider the resignations. The MLAs said they were apprised of the notice asking them to appear before the Speaker on July 23. The letters were written by Ramesh Jarkiholi, Munirathna, R. Shankar, B.C. Patil, Shivaram Hebbar, Mahesh Iranagouda Kumathalli, N. Nagaraju (MTB), Pratapgouda Patil, S.T. Somashekar, B.A. Basavaraja of the Congress, and Narayan Gowda, K. Gopalaih, and H. Vishwanath of the JD(S).
