CM announces
Rs 25,000
for flood-hit

BENGALURU, DHNS: Chief Minister B S Yediyurappa on Saturday announced a compensation of Rs 25,000 for every family affected by floods in Bengaluru.

The decision was taken after Yediyurappa held an emergency meeting with Revenue Minister R Ashoka, BBMP administrator Gaurav Gupta, BBMP Commissioner N Manjunatha Prasad and Bengaluru police commissioner Kamal Pant.

"It has been decided to provide Rs 25,000 to every family that has suffered losses due to the heavy rainfall and flooding," Yediyurappa told reporters.

The chief minister also took stock of the flood situation. "I have directed officials to take action towards a permanent solution," he said.

Heavy rainfall is forecast for two more days in the city.
