Hyderabad: Immediately after TRS swept the civic elections in Telangana on Saturday, chief minister K Chandrasekhar Rao told reporters at the party headquarters that his government would pass a resolution against the CAA in the assembly. This would make Telangana the fourth state to pass such a resolution after Kerala, Punjab and Rajasthan.

He also revived talk of a federal front and said both Congress and BJP had failed the country. "It may not happen immediately, but I believe the front will form the next government at the Centre." He added that he supported abrogation of Article 370 and opposed CAA in the nation's interest. TRS had voted against CAA in Parliament.

Stressing that CAA was "100% a big mistake", he said he would mobilise support of like-minded regional party chiefs and the 15-odd CMs who are against CAA, and hold a conference in Hyderabad soon. "If required, a public meeting with 10 lakh people will be organised in the city," he added. KCR also said that in his view, the Supreme Court should take up CAA suo motu and scrap it. "I request the PM to withdraw CAA as it is against the preamble of the Constitution," he said.
