BENGALURU, DHNS: The Covid-19 pandemic has certainly made legislators nervous.

On Friday, Law Minister J C Madhuswamy asked if Congress' Priyank Kharge was allowed to attend the session as he was said to have tested positive for Covid-19.

Kharge said his first test was a false positive. "I have tested negative and I've submitted the certificates. I'm a responsible citizen and legislator," he said.

During the day, Congress' Sowmya Reddy threatened to walk out if MLAs continued to speak without wearing masks. She said this referring to Revenue Minister R Ashoka who did not have his mask on while speaking on the floor.
