Saplings and projects
MLA for Mangaluru City North Y. Bharath Shetty (in picture) has announced
"prizes" to his party (BJP) workers who plant and nurture saplings in wards coming under his Assembly segment from this year. The prizes are not in cash, but in the form of development projects in the range of ₹10 lakh, ₹5 lakh, and ₹2 lakh drawn from his area development fund. The MLA said recently that party workers in each ward should plant and nurture at least five saplings. Their growth will be inspected every year just ahead of the monsoon or after heavy rains. The best-maintained saplings will be considered for the prize. The fund will be used only for such projects, which will help the community as a whole.

The MLA is of the view that his initiative will encourage workers to contribute to increasing the green cover in the city while also contributing on the development front.
