Bengaluru: The Karnataka high court on Friday directed the deputy commissioner (DC) of Hassan to furnish documents relating to newly-elected MP Prajwal Revanna's nomination papers to advocate G Devarajegowda. The court said the documents must be furnished by July 3.

Justice Alok Aradhe passed the order while disposing of a petition filed by Devarajegow-da, a social worker from Hassan. Devarajegowda had filed a petition in the high court after the Hassan DC, who was also the returning officer for the Lok Sabha polls, on April 29, had rejected an application seeking certified documents of particulars provided by Prajwal including his nominations papers, despite being bound by rule 93(2) of the Conduct of Election Rules, 1961 to furnish the details. Since July 6 is the last date for filing election petitions, the petitioner urged the court to direct the DC to furnish the documents.

In his petition, Devarajegowda claimed the JD(S) MP had filed a false affidavit in relation to movable and immovable properties, bank balance and income from previous years in Form No 26, filed at the time of his nomination.
