CD case: Woman to appear in court

May appear before magistrate today; SIT assures security to woman

30/3/21
BENGALURU, DHNS

A local court on Monday permitted the woman allegedly involved in the CD scandal to give her statement before the magistrate, after she requested for it through her advocate.

K N Jagadesh Kumar, the woman's advocate, filed a petition before the registrar of the court in the morning, seeking permission for the woman to come before the magistrate and give her statement.

The court granted the permission in the evening, but the woman didn't appear as the court's working hours were over before Jagadesh collected the order.

Jagadesh told DH that the woman would appear before the magistrate by 4.30 pm on Tuesday.

In a related development, the Special Investigation Team (SIT) has communicated to the advocate in writing, assuring

Woman writes to CJ

The woman in the CD scandal has written to the Chief Justice of the High Court of Karnataka to monitor the probe. The letter dated March 28 (Sunday) surfaced on Monday. It follows a series of video clips in which the woman expressed fear for her life. Meanwhile, the father of the woman said his daughter was under pressure and her statement should be recorded after she is normal.
