BJP MLA who voted in RS poll tests positive

BHOPAL
A BJP MLA from Madhya Pradesh's Rewa district has tested positive for COVID-19, becoming the second legislator who voted in the Rajya Sabha election to have contracted the illness, said officials. Hours after the election on June 19, party MLA from Jawad Omprakash Saklecha and his wife tested positive here. Sirmour MLA Divyaraj Singh, who returned to Rewa, became alert after he came to know about it and isolated himself, said officials. "We collected his sample on June 27, which tested positive a day later," they said.
