ADDRESSING an all-party gathering on the eve of the Budget session, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said his government is open to discussing all issues with the opposition.

"In the meeting, the Prime Minister said the government is ready to listen to opposition's views and is open to discussion on all issues," Parliamentary Affairs Minister Pralhad Joshi told reporters.

When members of the Opposition charged that the government was not listening to them on issues such as the CAA, Joshi urged them to "introspect" as the amended Citizenship Act has been passed democratically by the Parliament. Joshi said the government has identified 45 bills and seven financial items to be taken up during the Budget session.
