

+

ಪತ್ರಿಕಾ ತುಣುಕುಗಳು
PAPER CLIPPINGS

-19

ಶಾಖೆ / ವಿಷಯ : DEPARTMENT / SUBJECT: Home- CD issue

ಪತ್ರಿಕೆಯ ಹೆಸರು : NAME OF THE NEWS PAPER: Deccan Herald ದಿನಾಂಕ : DATE: 31/3/21

CD case: Woman finally appears before magistrate

Records her statement for nearly 2 hours

BENGALURU, DHNS

Days after the sleaze CD surfaced and created a political storm, the woman allegedly involved in the scandal appeared before the magistrate in a remand court hall in Vasanth Nagar on Tuesday afternoon and gave her statement.

According to K N Jagadesh Kumar, the advocate representing the woman, she reportedly told the magistrate that Ramesh Jarkiholi promised her a job and abused her.

The woman gave her statement before the judge for more than 2 hours before going with the Special Investigation Team (SIT) for further procedures.

Jagadesh Kumar said she had been taken by SIT officials upon agreeing to appear before them to give her statement. The advocate demanded officials to arrest the accused immediately and show

High drama at noon

The woman's advocate Jagadesh had told the media on Tuesday morning that she would appear at a local court on Nrupathunga Road around 3 pm. But it was a plan to divert the attention of the media and others.

When everyone was waiting at the court, the woman was taken to the remand court in Guru Nanak Bhavan around 2.30 pm.

their impartiality.

The woman's statement before the court is yet to be known as no one was allowed inside the court hall. Her statement was recorded from 3 pm to 5 pm, said sources.

SIT officials are questioning the woman and recording her statement at the Adugodi Technical Cell. Around 100 policemen were deployed at the court in Guru Nanak Bhavan, Vasanth Nagar, for security. The woman arrived in a private vehicle escorted by a female police officer.