

City celebrates Sardar Vallabhbhai's birth anniversary

BENGALURU, 31 OCT

An event was organised jointly by both the houses of the legislature to mark the 146th birth anniversary of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel at Vidhana Soudha on Sunday.

Speaking at the event, Vishweshar Hegde Kageri, the speaker of the legislative assembly, said, "Even today there are centrifugal forces, which are working to weaken country's unity and integrity. We need to be vigilant and foil their nefarious designs."

He also emphasised the need to walk in the footsteps of Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel by protecting the country's unity, integrity, and internal security. Kageri administered the National Integrity Oath to the officers and staff of both the houses of the legislature.

Basavaraj Horatti, Chairman of the Legislative Council, stated that Sardar Patel was an ideal leader who took a tough stand while performing the crucial task of unifying the country into one administrative unit in an exemplary manner. "We need to recall the services of that great leader and emulate him in our daily lives," he added.

The event was attended by the Secretaries of both houses of the legislature, Mahalakshmi (council) and Vishalakshi (assembly), as well as other senior officers. —Salar News
